HIGBEE DEFENDS BADGER COURTS

Regrets Tribune Editorial Which Failed to Make Exception to Rather Sweeping Inference

WE SUBMERGE TECHNICALITIES

Supreme Court of This State Will Not Reverse on Error which Did Not Deprive of Justice

Editor La Crosse Tribune, La Crosse, Wisconsin.

Dear Sir: In a recent issue, I notice an editorial headed "Cheer Up! Justice may cease to be a joke," which you close with the following statement: "The match lighted in Oklahoma gives just a ray of hope that the author of the great American satire on its courts may have a chance to write it in the past tense."

It is easy to understand the attitude of such publications as "Colliers" and the "Saturday Evening Post" seeking a large circulation where the editors are unknown personalities except to a very limited few; but the fact that you are a lawyer and write editorials to be read by people who know you and rightly give much weight to the opinions which you express, causes me to regret the statement above quoted on account of the inferences that may be drawn therefrom and especially the inference that the new state of Oklahoma is the pioneer along the lines suggested.

Many years ago in this state there was passed a statute which reads as follows:

"The court shall, in every stage of an action, disregard any error or defect in the pleadings or proceedings which shall not affect the substantial rights of the adverse party; and no judgment shall be reversed or affected by reason of such error or defect."

In Oborn vs. the State, 143 Wis. 249, Justice Marshall made the following statement in respect to that statute:

"That has been referred to as a most beneficent provision precluding disturbance of judicial results by any inconsequential matter, and that, in the spirit of it, all irregularities and errors should be deemed inconsequential in the absence of reasonably clear indications that the adverse party was prejudiced thereby, in that, otherwise, the result, as to him, might, within reasonable probabilities, have been different. Under the guide of that statute judgments have been affirmed, though grounded on records bristling with error."

In 1909, the legislature of our state passed the following statutory provision:

"No judgment shall be reversed or set aside or new trial granted in any action or proceedings, civil or criminal, on the ground of misdirection of the jury, or the improper admission of evidence, or for error as to any matter of pleading or procedure, unless in the opinion of the court to which the application is made, after an examination of the entire action or proceeding, it shall appear that the error complained of has affected the substantial rights of the party seeking to reverse or set aside the judgment, or to secure the new trial."

In the same case, commenting upon the later statute, Justice Marshall uses the following language:

"There is no longer, if there ever was, any reason for holding that a judgment should be reversed for mere errors, however numerous and inexcusable, or errors in the absence of its reasonably appearing as an inference of fact that the party seeking reversal was prejudiced thereby, in that had the error not occurred the result, as to him, might, within reasonable probabilities, have been more favorable. That must be the true test of prejudicial error, displacing if necessary, the idea that prejudice is to be presumed from the mere occurrence of error and giving controlling dignity to the idea that prejudicial error is presumed against, this presumption to prevail till overcome, to the extent above indicated, by preponderating inferences of fact. To go further than suggested would probably invade the constitutional right to have the weight of probabilities respecting matters of fact determined by a jury or the trial judge according to circumstances."

Again in Koepp vs. National Enameling & Stamping Co., 139 N. W. 179, the same justice states the rules in this state as follows:

"It is now, by the late most emphatic expression giving direction to judicial thought, made plain that the final termination of litigation must not be delayed by errors of trial courts, however numerous and inexcusable, unless it shall appear with reasonable certainty, that, had they not occurred, the result might probably have been more favorable to the one complaining of them."

In view of these citations I think it will be apparent that the head lines of your editorial are unfair, at least insofar as they may apply to the attitude of the supreme court of this state.

Yours truly,

E. C. HIGBEE.

ADDRESSES LETTER TO "FORT EKERN"

MADISON, Wis., Jan. 28.—Postmaster W. A. Devine had no trouble in delivering a letter to "Fort Ebern" at the state capitol building yesterday afternoon. It was an important message sent from Milwaukee, according to the postmark, on Jan. 26, and was mailed in that city at 10 p. m. At Fort Ebern this afternoon it could not be learned whether the letter contained information about more suggested military maneuvers or not. The letter was directed as follows: INSURANCE COMMISSIONER (Who ever he is) CAPITOL BUILDING, (Fort Ebern) MADISON, WIS.

HITS GOVERNMENT OF PHILIPPINES

Representative Jones Calls System "Law-defying and Despotism Oligarchy"

HE ALLEGES GROSS EXTRAVAGANCE

Declares Forbes Has Spent $14,000,000 of Funds in Disregard of Appropriations

WASHINGTON, Jan. 28.—Attacking the American government of the Philippines as a law defying, self-interested oligarchy of the most intolerable despotism and unrestricted character," which has plunged the Philippines in debt, defeated the ends of justice and violated the act of congress under which it was formed, Representative Jones (Va.) today in the house, answered President Taft's recent criticism of the democratic plan for Philippine independence.

Jones charged Governor-General Forbes with gross extravagance and declared that under his administration resident bureaus had been created with fabulous salaries for chiefs and assistants.

The Benguet road, built through the mountains to the summer homes of the American colony, the speaker asserted, cost the Philippines over $1,000,000 and an annual up-keep of $300,000.

"Governor Forbes having gotten into his hand $12,000,000 to $14,000,000 in funds this year, he has proceeded to spend them according to his own will and in utter disregard of prior legislative appropriations," Jones declared.

Among other things, Jones said, twelve new bureaus have been inaugurated and that besides furnishing automobiles to bureau chiefs, the governor had appointed a private secretary for his own use at a salary of $4,500 a year.

Part of the $3,000,000 appropriated by congress for alleviating suffering among the starving natives, Jones charged, was converted by the governing body and used in building the Benguet road. This policy, pursued during American occupancy, he said, "turned what affection the natives had for this country into hatred."

TO STRIKE IN CHICAGO

GARMENT WORKERS OF WINDY CITY PLAN WALKOUT IF EMPLOYERS DO NOT RAISE PAY

CHICAGO, Jan. 28.—A general tie-up of the clothing trades of Chicago unless garment workers are given better pay was threatened today by officials of the garment workers' union here. The employees of all the shops in the wholesale clothing's association are involved. These number 40,000. This move is entirely without connection with the proposed sympathetic strike.

According to the union officials the employees of all the association factories have had deductions made in their pay since the strike in 1910, which was won by the employers.

ROCHESTER, N. Y., Jan. 28.—The clothing manufacturers have closed their factories for an indefinite period. The cutters, who had been at work up to the time of the shut down have now formally declared that they will make the fight of the garment workers their fight. Not a single factory was open today.

KIMMEL IN JAIL?

ST. LOUIS, Mo., Jan. 28.—The celebrated Kimmel case is on Page One again. It was awakened by a belief today that a man in jail at Bowling Green, Mo., charged with forging a small check, is the man who said many times in court that he is George Kimmel, missing Niles, Mich., banker. According to Sheriff Hawkins of Bowling Green, the man is seriously ill. He is so ill, in fact that he thought he was going to die. That was when he admitted to the sheriff that he was the missing Kimmel.

FORMER CONVICT CONFESSES CRIME

Alleged Burglar Detected by Means of Spider Web Admits Robbery of Offices

JUST RELEASED FROM PRISON

Tells Chief Webber that He Served Five Years at Stillwater for Burglary

William Bruce Sutherland, who was arrested by Patrolman Samuel Johnson yesterday on the suspicion that a few strands of cobweb found on his coat was attached to him during the attempted robbery, confessed to Chief of Police John Webber late yesterday that he was the man who attempted to rob the offices of the La Crosse Knitting company, according to a statement given out at police headquarters today.

According to this statement, Sutherland not only admitted his attempt to break into the knitting company's safe, but he said that he was released only five days ago from the Minnesota state prison at Stillwater, where he had been placed on a five year term for committing a burglary in Minneapolis. He said that he was sent to Stillwater for five years and after serving three years he was released under parole, but broke his parole by leaving the state. He was brought back from Ohio by Minnesota officials and compelled to serve the full five year sentence. He said he completed his term and was dismissed from Stillwater January 20 and after staying in St. Paul about one day he came to La Crosse.

He declared that he had attempted the robbery of the knitting company office at about 10:30 Sunday night but that he was compelled to give up his attack on the safe because of inadequate tools. He attempted to drive a bolt through the lock but the metal resisted his strongest efforts. Sutherland speaks with a strong Scottish accent, having been born in Scotland and coming to America fifteen years ago. He steadfastly maintained his innocence and declared that he did not know why he was arrested until late yesterday afternoon when he admitted that the evidence against him was too convincing to permit his escape. He then broke down and made a clean breast of the whole affair. He said he did not have a partner.

Sutherland was arrested by Patrolman Johnson after as pretty a piece of detective work as has been staged in this city for a long time. Johnson found that some of the cobwebs on the window entered by the burglar had been brushed away recently. Cobwebs on Sutherland's shoulder brought the suspicion on him and he was arrested. There was even a fragment of a dead fly in the cobweb on his shoulder, which matched the portion of a fly found on the window ledge at the knitting company office.

Sutherland has promised to enter a plea of guilty when arraigned before Judge E. C. Higbee Saturday, the next court day, and it is probable that he will be sentenced the same day.

SUSPEND WEIGHT ADVANCE

WASHINGTON, Jan. 28.—The interstate commerce commission today suspended until May 31 the advance from 30,000 to 33,000 pounds of the minimum carload weight on potatoes from points in Wisconsin, Minnesota and Michigan to points in the middle west.

MILWAUKEE MASON DIES

MILWAUKEE, Wis., Jan. 28.—Announcement today said that the local Masonic lodge would have charge of the funeral of George Hays, 80, the city's oldest Mason, who died Monday night. Hays was a well known box manufacturer.

ROBBED—DRINKS ACID

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., Jan. 28.—Robbed of his savings of several months, according to a note found in his room, John Kowalski, 27, Baltimore, Md., attempted suicide at the Model Hotel, early today by drinking sulphuric acid. He is dying at the city hospital.

FRIGHTENED TO DEATH

SALOONKEEPER DROPS DEAD WHEN MEN REFUSED ADMITTANCE THREATENED TO SHOOT

MILWAUKEE, Wis., Jan. 28.—That William Youngquist, 68, a saloonkeeper at Kelly's Hill, near Milwaukee, was literally frightened to death late last night was the opinion of doctors who examined the body today. They said he died of heart failure, the result of extreme terror.

Mrs. Youngquist told the police her husband fell to the floor dead when her son-in-law, Henry Koelpin and Charles Schowman, his friend, came to the saloon late at night, and when refused admittance threatened to shoot through the door. Youngquist had quarreled with his son-in-law.

SUES BUTCHER FOR STEAK TRIMMINGS

CHICAGO, Jan. 28.—Who is entitled to the butcher's trimmings?

This question, that affects the head of every household, is getting a legal test in the suburb of Evanston.

Mrs. G. P. Jackson, wife of a professor in Northwestern university, said she would ask today for the arrest of P. J. Rapp, her butcher, to settle in court the question whether he can cut two pounds of bone and fat off a four and a half pound steak, and deliver the remaining two and a half pounds to her after she has paid for the full four and a half pounds.

Mrs. Jackson yesterday had two butchers in Rapp's shop arrested for the same thing, but Justice John F. Boyer discharged them and asked her to have Rapp, the owner of the shop, arrested.

EKERN CASE TAKEN UNDER ADVISEMENT

H. L. Butler Closes the Argument for McGovern in the Circuit Court

CALLS HEARING UNNECESSARY

Declares Governor Only Granted Ekern Chance to Defend Self as Favor

MADISON, Wis., Jan. 28.—Harry L. Butler closed the arguments before Judge E. Ray Stevens in circuit court here today in behalf of the state in the McGovern-Ekern controversy. The court took the case under advisement.

Butler denied that McGovern acted arbitrarily. He said that under the statutes the governor was not compelled to give Ekern any hearing. He did so as a favor, declared Butler. Butler contended that if there has been opposition to law enforcement it has been on the part of Ekern for resisting Anderson, who, according to Butler, holds prima facie right to the office of commissioner of insurance. Butler said that Ekern had been "notoriously active" for L. L. Johnson, candidate for speaker and that this activity was in violation of an act to take the office of commissioner of insurance out of politics.

MILWAUKEE, Wis., Jan. 28.—Governor McGovern here today for a short stay, declined to comment on the battle being waged between himself and Insurance Commissioner de facto Herman L. Ekern. McGovern also refused to discuss the local boxing situation.

TO ARREST OIL MEN

THREE STANDARD OIL LEADERS TO BE ARRESTED ON WRITS SENT FROM TEXAS

DALLAS, Texas, Jan. 28.—Federal Judge E. R. Meek today mailed to New York warrants for the arrest of Archbold, Fogler and Teagle. He announced that if any difficulty is encountered in making the arrest he will send Texas officers after the men who are wanted in the United States district court here.

The three men charged with violating the Sherman anti-trust law in Texas are John D. Archbold, H. C. Fogler, Jr., and W. C. Teagle.

MAY RANSOM TABLET

GOLD TABLET INVITING MCKINLEY TO CALIFORNIA MASONIC ASSEMBLY PAWNED IN NEW YORK

NEW YORK, Jan. 28.—Prominent Masons today discussed the advisability of starting a movement to ransom one of the most treasured pieces of plate owned by President McKinley, a solid 14-carat gold tablet inviting him to a state assembly of California Commandery No. 1, Knights Templar. It is now held by a Broadway pawnbroker and until today was displayed in his window in a conglomerate setting of odds and ends of jewelry.

The pawnbroker demands $1,000 for the relic. It came into his possession from Dr. Hermanus F. B. Baer, of Mount Vernon, husband of McKinley's niece, formerly Mabel McKinley, a singer. Baer says he pawned the tablet for $700 during an epidemic of burglaries near where he lived, fearing it would be stolen.

OPPOSE ALDRICH PLAN

WASHINGTON, Jan. 28.—"Pennsylvania farmers and I think farmers everywhere are bitterly opposed to the Aldrich central bank scheme," was the declaration today before the Glass committee investigating currency reform of W. T. Creasy, master of the Pennsylvania state grange representing 70,000 farmers.

MANY BUILDINGS TO GO UP HERE

Summer of 1913 to Be a Record Breaker in Building Activity

CONVENT ADDITION IS PLANNED

Rubber Mills and Gauge and Register Companies Will Build New Factories

Building activities in La Crosse this summer will break all records if present plans are consummated and others in a more or less nebulous condition brought to completion. It is expected that there will be a greater demand for labor in this city during the coming spring and summer than has ever been approached in its history.

Among the buildings to be constructed in La Crosse this summer will be a large addition to the St. Rose convent on South Ninth street, the new factory building of the National Gauge and Register company, the addition to the plant of the La Crosse Rubber Mills which will more than double the capacity of that institution and the new St. Wenceslaus church which is now being planned by the congregation of the rapidly growing parish.

Addition to Convent

The St. Rose convent addition will be a connection of the convent proper and school building. It will be about 140 feet long and fifty feet wide. It will be four stories high with a full basement and of the same general architecture as the other buildings in the group. The plans are not near enough to completion to enable an estimate of the cost of the proposed building.

The plans for the National Gauge and Register company factory have not as yet been more than tentatively announced but it is the expectation of the company to build a large new building to enable them to care for their expansion in business.

Rubber Mills Factory

In his recent communication to Mayor John Dengler, in which he asked for certain improvements on St. Andrews street, Albert Funk, secretary of the Rubber Mills company announced that the company intends to build an addition to the factory that will double the capacity of that plant. The Park Bakery on South Fifth street will put up a $25,000 building on the lots next to their present location.

The construction of the new water plant will be rushed all summer so as to be completed by next fall and a large number of men will be needed both at the pumping station and the reservoirs. Contractors are already hiring men for this work and a large number are now engaged in the construction already begun and will be employed until next winter.

Two Rumors Denied

A rumor to the effect that the Gas and Electric company have obtained an option on the building on Fourth and Pearl streets, next to the Bodega saloon, was denied by Mrs. Abraham, owner of the building today. The rumor had it that the Gas and Electric company proposed to build a new store building on this corner.

Another persistent rumor that a stock company has been organized in this city to build a "sky-scraper" was emphatically denied by men whose names have been connected with the alleged company. It was said that the new building would be built on Fourth street north of the Hebbard drug store. Although it is known that a Chicago architect and promoter has been trying to get La Crosse capitalists interested in such a plan, it is said that no stock company has as yet been organized. It is believed that perhaps this rumor was a resurrection of the story that gained credence here some time ago to the effect that the United Cigar Stores company has obtained an option on the Beck property proposing to build a new building on the corner of Fourth and Main streets as soon as the Hebbard lease on the building runs out. That there is but little foundation in this story is indicated by the fact that the Hebbard lease does not expire for more than two years.

TO PRESERVE NIAGARA

BILL PUTTING FALLS AND TRIBUARIES UNDER SUPERVISION OF SECRETARY OF WAR APPROVED

WASHINGTON, Jan. 28.—For the present at least, Niagara Falls is removed from the grip of the water-power exploiters by the "conservation" bill scheduled for favorable report tonight by the house foreign affairs committee.

The bill places the waters of Niagara Falls and those of its tributary streams directly under the supervision of the secretary of war, and forbids any diversion for power or other purposes without his express permission. A fine of not less than $500 a day nor more than $1,000 is provided for any violation.

WIFE KILLS HER SPOUSE IN DUEL

MOSCOW, Jan. 28.—Mme. Nadia Putokin on Sunday killed her husband in a rapier duel to which she had formally challenged him.

The Putokins were both professors of fencing, and their rooms were crowded every day with fashionable people. One of them was an army officer who aroused the jealousy of Mr. Putokin.

The jealousy of the husband led the officer to issue a challenge, but Mme. Putokin, declaring that her honor had been insulted, sent seconds to her husband and insisted that he should fight her first.

JUDGE IN BITTER ATTACK ON BENCH

New York Supreme Court Justice Says the Courts Create Anarchistic Conditions

WARNS AGAINST POPULAR RAGE

Declares Judges Must Mete Out Justice or the People Will Act

TROY, N. Y., Jan. 28.—Not in many years have legal circles been as exercised as they are today following Justice Wesley O. Howard's bitter attack on the "Do Nothing" policy of the bench. Howard is a justice of the supreme court. To the alumni of La Salle institute, the justice last night declared that the judges of this country were doing more to create anarchistic conditions than anyone else.

"Brandt, the obscure valet, not guilty at all the crime of which he was accused, so the attorney general states, is sentenced to state prison for thirty years—practically for life; Robin, the millionaire, the alleged wrecker of banks, houses and homes, goes to jail for a year. Morse, who pyramided banks and juggled with millions, get out of prison because he is sick, while the convict in the next cell, who stole a coat, perhaps, remains there languishing with sickness till he dies."

"The people are becoming impatient with these discrepancies of justice and they are demanding with a louder voice each day that there be reform. It is not well to go off at the mutterings of the people; there is much reason for it. But revolutionary measures are to be avoided. The recall of judges and decisions would work no cure—that would precipitate anarchy."

"Let us not deceive ourselves, the spirit of recall is spreading; the impatience of the masses growing deeper. Something will happen. Unless the judges act, the people will act; if they do not resort to the recall, they will revise the constitution and create new courts—courts that will do rough justice; courts to do summary justice; courts close to the common people; courts without technicalities, sophistry and delay, and where substantial right prevails."

WIRE STRIKE SPREADS

NIGHT SHIFT IN BRADDOCK MILL JOIN RANKIN STRIKERS AND SALOONS ARE ORDERED SHUT

PITTSBURG, Jan. 28.—Striking American Steel and Wire workers prepared to resist the importation and use of strikebreakers in the Rankin and Braddock mills today. During the night, the night shift at the Braddock mill joined the Rankin strikers.

Burgess J. K. Milligan of Rankin today proclaimed Rankin in a state of riot, forbade the sale of intoxicants and ordered children to keep off the streets. Fear kept many workers away from the plants. Twenty-five additional deputies were sworn in.

STEAMER LOST ON ROCKS

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 28.—The steam schooner Samoa went ashore today on Point Reyes, Cal. Wireless dispatches reported the Samoa struck during a heavy fog, the densest in many years, and will be a total loss. The Samoa is a lumber vessel. The Caspar Lumber company, owner of the steamship Samoa, has been advised that the entire crew of the vessel has been safely landed, but that there is no hope of saving the schooner.

MAKES PAPER FROM WEEDS

PITTSBURG, Jan. 28.—Francis L. Stewart, chemist, who has a laboratory at Murfreesville, announced today that he has had a process for making paper from weeds patented here and abroad. He claims plain fiber paper will supplant wood pulp paper and makes the startling assertion that newspapers may be printed on book paper at a cost less than is expended at present for coarse fibre.

YOUNG TURKS VOTE AGAINST YIELDING

Unanimously Refuse to Give Up Adrianople and Aegean Islands

THE ALLIES ARE FOR FIGHTING

Envoys Approve Note to Turkey Breaking Off the Existing Armistice

CONSTANTINOPLE, Jan. 28.—The council of the committee of union and progress (Young Turks) today voted unanimously to refuse to give up Adrianople and the Aegean islands to the Balkan allies.

The Young Turks are the backers of Enver Bey, the dictator of the revolutionary government, and it is regarded as probable that their decision will be the official reply of Turkey to the great powers. The national assembly and the sublime porte are expected to follow their action.

It was announced today that Kiamil Pasha, deposed grand vizor, has been stricken with paralysis on his right side.

Allies Approve Note LONDON, Jan. 28.—The joint note of the Balkan peace delegates informing the Turkish plenipotentiaries that the armistice is to be broken off, was approved today by all the envoys of the allies, at a luncheon given by M. Novakovich, the Serbian chief.

The delegates examined the brief note with great interest and discussed it at length, and then decided to hold a formal session tomorrow to give it official approval.

It now is certain that should fighting be resumed, it will be at least two weeks before the armistice can be broken with regularity, and a state of war cannot exist before the middle of February.

In the meantime the ambassadors are holding daily consultations at the foreign office, and it is confidently believed that the powers will intervene before the peace envoys finish with their red tape.

The note to Turkey merely states that as Turkey has made no move since January 6 in the peace negotiations, the allies have no course open but to break off the negotiations.

Denmark Feels War Scare

COPENHAGEN, Jan. 28.—Denmark today suffered from a mild attack of the war scare that is over all Europe. In order to strengthen the defenses of Copenhagen and the sound, ten battalions of infantry and three regimental staffs were ordered transferred immediately from Jutland and Funen to Zealand.

BAR FOREIGN RICH FIRMS

LANSING, Mich., Jan. 28.—Seventeen foreign fire insurance companies are barred from doing further business in Michigan in a statement sent out today by Insurance Commissioner Palmer to representatives of each company. Palmer's action was taken by reason of a violation of the Michigan statute which provides that no insurance company incorporated in a foreign country shall expose itself to any loss on a single risk in excess of ten per cent of its deposited capital in the United States.

SLUMS RIVAL BIG CITY'S

MADISON, Wis., Jan. 28.—"The condition of some of the families of Madison is as bad as anything that I saw in my work in the ghetto of Chicago," said Miss Mary Saxton, visiting nurse, this morning. "There are not so many cases, but the equal or shiftnessness of some of our American born citizen of Madison is equal to the worst conditions of Chicago."

WEATHER

For La Crosse and vicinity: Generally fair tonight and Wednesday; rising temperature.

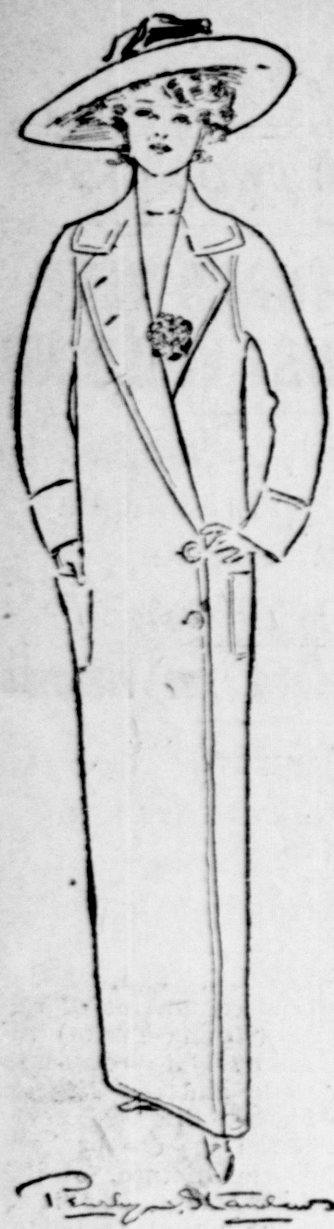

For Wisconsin: Generally fair tonight and Wednesday; rising temperature Wednesday and in west portion tonight.

For Minnesota: Generally fair tonight and Wednesday; rising temperature tonight and in east portion Wednesday.

For Iowa: Fair tonight and Wednesday; warmer Wednesday and in north portion tonight.

Weather Conditions

The weather has become generally clear in the Atlantic and gulf states with much lower temperature. Light snow fell in the upper Mississippi valley and lake region during the past 24 hours and continues at a few lake stations this morning. Elsewhere the weather has been generally fair. An area of low pressure is central in Saskatchewan and the temperature continues high in Montana and the adjacent Canadian territory. The pressure is highest over the Plateau region. Under the influence of the northwestern low the weather will likely be generally fair in this section tonight and Wednesday with rising temperature.

RACINE MAN SUES FOR ALLEGED LIBEL

ELKHORN, Wis., Jan. 28.—Judge Franz C. Eschweiler of Milwaukee on Monday opened the case of Wallace Ingalls of Racine against the Delavan Republican, a weekly newspaper of Delavan, in which Mr. Ingalls asks $25,000 damages for alleged libel.

The present action is one of three started by Mr. Ingalls. The others are against the Beloit Daily News, and the Monroe Evening Times. Mr. Ingalls asks $100,000 damages from the three defendants.

OAT SMUT SPREADS

MADISON, Wis., Jan. 28.—Due to the negligence of Wisconsin farmers, many of whom have stopped using the formalin treatment on their seed oats, oat smut is again beginning to do damage in the state. Unless farmers generally begin treating their seed oats again, the disease is likely to spread widely.

BILL WOULD PUT END TO FRATS

MADISON, Wis., Jan. 28.—A bill to abolish fraternities and sororities at the University of Wisconsin, at the eight state normal schools, and in all high schools in Wisconsin receiving state aid, was introduced in the legislature today by Assemblyman Louis Anderson of Rhineland.

BOY SHOOTS WHEN TOBACCO IS TAKEN

ST. PAUL, Minn., Jan. 28.—Frank Roberts, 15 years old, 127 Viola street, fired four shots at his mother and another woman late yesterday afternoon after his mother had taken his tobacco from him, according to the police. He failed, however, to hit either of the women.

WE URGE A TRIAL TODAY. AVOID SUBSTITUTES

HAPPY, LAUGHING CHILD SHORTLY

If cross, feverish, bilious and sick let "Syrup of Figs" clean its little waste-clogged bowels

No matter what ails your child, a gentle, thorough laxative physic should always be the first treatment given.

If your child isn't feeling well; resting nicely; eating regularly and acting naturally it is a sure sign that its little stomach, liver and 30 feet of bowels are filled with foul, constipated waste matter and need a gentle, thorough cleansing at once.

When cross, irritable, feverish, stomach sour, breath bad or your little one has stomach-ache, diarrhoea, sore throat, full of cold, tongue coated; give a teaspoonful of Syrup of Figs and in a few hours all the clogged up waste, undigested food and sour bile will gently move on and out of its little bowels without nausea, griping or weakness, and you will surely have a well, happy and smiling child again shortly.

With Syrup of Figs you are not drugging your children, being composed entirely of luscious figs, senna and aromatics it cannot be harmful, besides they dearly love its delicious fig taste.

Mothers should always keep Syrup of Figs handy. It is the only stomach, liver and bowel cleanser and regulator needed—a little given today will save a sick child tomorrow.

Full directions for children of all ages and for grown-ups plainly printed on the package.

Ask your druggists for the full name, "Syrup of Figs and Elixir of Senna," prepared by the California Fig Syrup Co. This is the delicious tasting, genuine old reliable. Refuse anything else offered.—Advertisement.

MUSICAL COMEDY GAINS POPULARITY

Crowded House Greeted the Opening of "Little Miss Mix-up" at Majestic Theater

The production of "Little Miss Mix-up" by the Johnny and Ella Galvin Musical Comedy company at the Majestic theater last night was received with a full house. Strenuous applause proved the comedy to be more popular than ever and several minor changes which have been made in the program since the Galvin company presented this comedy here before, was largely responsible for its appreciative reception.

Johnny Galvin, the leading man, lived up to his reputation as one of the most clever actors who have ever made an appearance at the Majestic. At every turn the leading man was there with new jokes and subtle humor, rendered with that pleasing manner that always brings a response from the audience.

"Be My Little Baby Bumble Bee," rendered by Johnny and Irene Galvin, was the hit of the comedy and they were forced to respond to encore after encore. Miss Irene Galvin, who is filling the part of the leading lady, owing to the illness of Ella Galvin, proved equal to the occasion.

Tootsie Galvin produced an unexpected feature to those of the audience who had witnessed the play previously, by singing "Cowboy Joe," the song with which Irene Galvin had made a hit in the previous production here.

The male quartet and Anger and Hanley, who officiate between acts in a clever piece of shoe work, were as good as ever.

WISCONSIN NEWS

AGED MAN WALKS 800 MILES TO HOME

MILWAUKEE, Jan. 28.—W. H. Barker, hermit, octogenarian and civil war veteran, arrived at the postoffice at the Soldiers' home, Milwaukee, Monday morning after completing a foot journey of more than 800 miles from his secluded cabin in the woods near Vernon, S. D.

When Barker started from Dakota he hoped to spend the remainder of his days as an inmate of the Soldiers' home here, but evidently he changed his mind. After calling for his mail, he informed the postoffice attaches that he would not stop here but would continue on afoot to Quincy, Ill.

Undaunted by his advanced years and spurning the hardships of his mode of travel, the hermit probably is carrying out his intention expressed at the postoffice, for inquiry at the home Monday afternoon failed to reveal that he had registered there.

HASTINGS HOTEL BURNS

HASTINGS, Minn., Jan. 28.—The Phoenix hotel was burned this morning and three firemen were injured by falling bricks. Edward Dushan, the landlord, lost all his household effects.

The brightest day for every girl and every woman is the day when she looks well, feels well and is well.

For every woman who does not enjoy these bright days of good health there is this cheering news.

Your aching back, the dizziness, languor and weakness that leaves you trembling and breathless after any exertion, those attacks of faintness and headaches that make everything blurred, can be banished just as soon as you make up your mind to build up your blood with Dr. Williams' Pink Pills.

They are the blood builder every pale, bloodless, sick woman should take. Women who have tried them value them above all other medicines. They know that they make the pure, red blood that brings freedom from pain and weariness, color to the cheeks, brightness to the eyes and a healthy appetite.

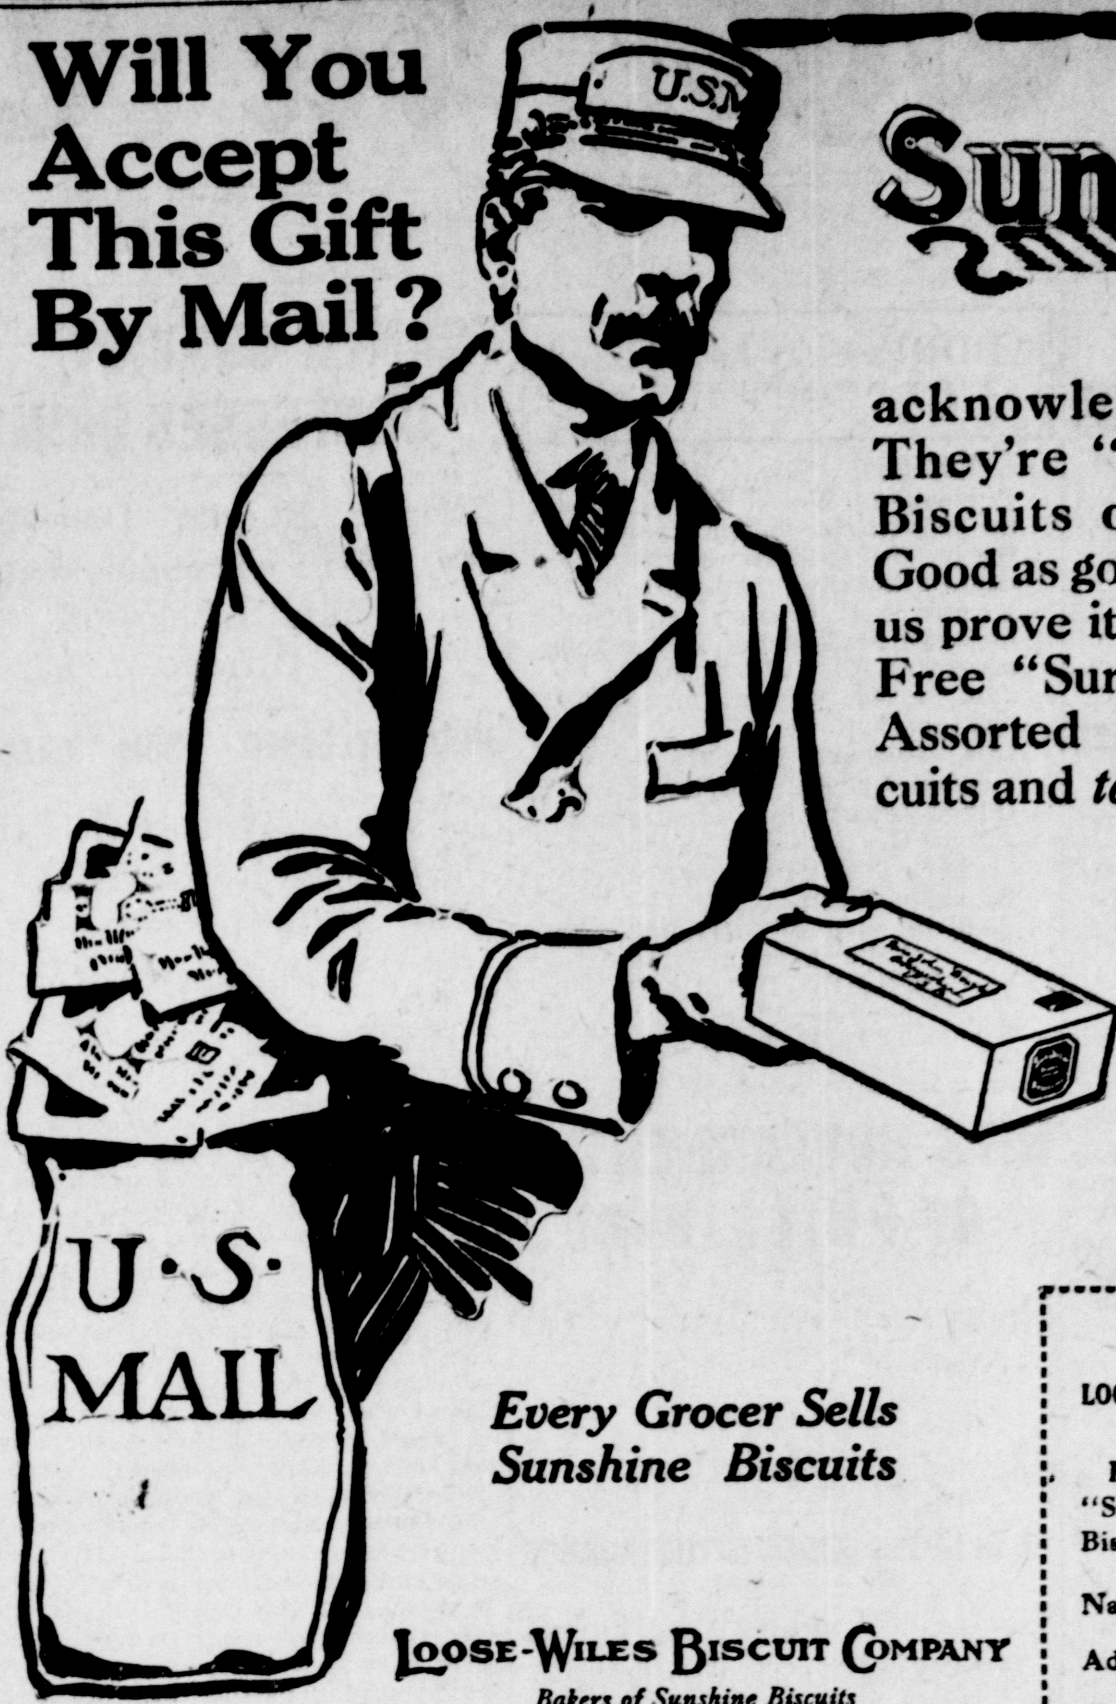

Every woman should know that she must have good, pure blood if she is to be strong and healthy. The pale, sickly girl, who does not grow strong, has no appetite, and has to stay out of school, suffers from lack of blood. The mother who breaks down and becomes nervous under the worry and hard work of bringing up her family, needs good blood. The woman who is easily tired out and looks old before her time, has poor blood.

To all of these women Dr. Williams' Pink Pills will give new, rich blood and prompt relief. They will build up the strength, tone up the stomach and nerves and give robust health. A booklet, "Plain Talks to Women," will be sent free upon request of any woman.

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are sold by all druggists at 50 cents per box or six boxes for $2.50, or direct by mail, postpaid, by the

Dr. Williams Medicine Company, Schenectady, N. Y.

Taking His Choice

"These monopolists in their treatment of the small dealer remind me of Mr. Blanc," said Upton Sinclair.

"Mr. Blanc said to his little son on Christmas day:

"Tommy, which will you have, turkey or cold mutton?"

"Turkey, please," Tommy answered promptly.

"But Mr. Blanc began to hack away at the gristly, gray, cold mutton.

"No, Tommy," he said, 'you can't have turkey. Take your choice, my lad, take your choice, but you can't have turkey.'"

DANDRUFF AND FALLING HAIR CAN BE STOPPED WITH HERPICIDE

Every woman who is obliged to wear false hair or man, a toupee, feels that it is a misfortune. What makes the burden so doubly hard to bear is the knowledge that the loss of natural hair could, in most instances, have been easily avoided.

The arch enemy of good hair is the dandruff germ. This is now a well established scientific fact. There is one remedy on the market which, used regularly, will kill the germ and keep out every trace of dandruff.

This remedy is Newbro's Herpicide long known as the Original Dandruff Germ Destroyer. By keeping the scalp clean, Herpicide not only prevents the hair from falling out but allows it to grow as nature intended. Begun in time and its use persisted in, this valuable remedy insures a nice healthy head of hair.

Herpicide imparts a life and luster to dull, dead, brittle hair making it light, fluffy and beautiful.

Don't wait. Begin now to save your hair.

Newbro's Herpicide in 50c and $1.00 sizes is sold by all dealers who guaranteed it to do all that is claimed. If you are not satisfied your money will be refunded.

Applications may be procured at the better barber shops and hair dressers.

A nice sample and booklet on the care of the hair will be sent to anyone upon receipt of 10c in postage or silver. Address The Herpicide Co., Dept. R., Detroit, Mich. Hoescher Bros., Special Agents.

Daddy's Bedtime Story — Snow White And the Hungry Pussy Cat

The Mouse Curled Against His Coat.

AFTER romping around daddy's chair Jack and Evelyn perched on its wide arms.

"Won't you tell us our story now, daddy, dear?" they asked.

"Very well," daddy replied. "I'll tell you about Johnny Price's white mouse.

"Johnny's white mouse was a pet. He was very fond of it. The mouse lived in a little cage in the sitting room.

"Johnny taught the little white mouse to run up his arm and snuggle against his shoulder for a nap. It looked very cute curled against his coat. Even Johnny's mamma, who did not care much for mice, did not mind Snow White, as Johnny called his pet.

"Johnny's papa was very fond of Snow White. He would feed the mouse with peanuts and bits of candy. Snow White was very fond of him.

"Johnny's mother said that Johnny must never allow Snow White to run about the house when he was not there to watch him. Whenever Johnny went out he was told to fasten the mouse in his cage.

"One Sunday morning Johnny gave Snow White a frolic in the sitting room. His little brother and his father watched the mouse for awhile, and then the latter went to sleep.

"The mouse crawled up on the gentleman's shoulder and, curling down, went to sleep. It looked so funny to see the two thus sleeping together that when Johnny was called out of the room he did not put Snow White back into his cage, as he should have done.

"Johnny was gone quite awhile, and little brother soon tired of waiting for him. After staring out of the window for a minute the little chap opened the door that led from the sitting room to the porch. He opened it very gently, and when he went out he left it open only a tiny bit.

"Out in the yard the neighbor's big gray cat was prowling. When little brother left the door open the cat began to sniff and sniff.

"H'm," said he; "I smell a mouse!" He kept on sniffing till he reached the sitting room door, and then he squeezed his way in.

"Johnny's papa was still sleeping, and so was the mouse. It didn't take the cat long to spy where it was. With a spring he landed on the mouse, and Johnny's papa sprang up with a yell. The cat's claws had scratched his shoulder.

"But the cat didn't care. With the mouse in his mouth he raced out of the door, and that was the last ever seen of Snow White.

"Sorry? Of course Johnny Price was sorry he hadn't put Snow White into his cage, but being sorry won't bring Snow White back again."

WELL "IT'S BETTER LATE THAN NEVER"

One of the things that bothered the bull moose orators in the recent presidential campaign was to find some evidence that Governor Wilson was not a progressive. True, he had put the bosses out of business in the state of New Jersey, and had passed primary laws and anti-lobby laws and anti-child labor laws and restriction of hours laws and a score or two of other laws all of which were of the most progressive order. They couldn't attack any of these, so they had to take the negative tack and orate about what Woodrow Wilson had NOT done.

They finally "got the right sow by the ear." Some one discovered that Governor Wilson had not secured a law to stop the old practice of monopolists incorporating under the laws of New Jersey. That was made the big backbone against Mr. Wilson's campaign.

Mr. Wilson may have had it in mind to do this all along. Anyway, he had been so busy securing the passage of good laws that it wasn't quite fair to make an omission serve as a case against him. But, however, that may be, the governor is now engaged in an attempt to push through the New Jersey legislature a law that will in the future prevent that state from fathering the big trusts.

Governor Bleasie wants a law passed providing a penalty for misquoting a public official in a newspaper. It is already unlawful to quote the governor exactly in print.

THE MODERN WOMAN READS THE "ADS"

"The woman who reads her newspaper and keeps track of the market reports, knows what prices ought to be. When she goes out to buy she pays no more than she ought to pay."

This is the significant assertion with which the Woman's Home Companion presents an important article upon the "housewives' league," an organization of 500 women who don't propose to be jobbed and robbed by those who contribute artificially to the high cost of living.

Readers of that enterprising journal will find the story entitled "You Seem to Know" of interest; to us it is of even greater interest that women are generally coming to realize the economic value of the daily newspaper, its market quotations and its offerings of store bargains.

THE PERSONNEL IS THE RULING FACTOR

Upon the first page of The Tribune today there appears a communication from Judge E. C. Higbee in which His Honor takes issue—at least so far as Wisconsin is concerned—with an editorial which appeared in The Tribune December 10, 1912. In addition to suggesting the rather sweeping character of the headline "Cheer Up! Justice May Cease to be a Joke," Judge Higbee takes for the text of his protest the last sentence of the editorial:

"The match lighted in Oklahoma gives just a ray of hope that the author of the great American satire on its courts may have a chance to write it in the past tense."

We believe readers of Judge Higbee's communication will better get the drift of his argument if permitted to read the entire editorial which he discusses, and we therefore reproduce it:

"Declaring that 'for the best satire nothing is needed but the simplest truth,' the Saturday Evening Post suggests that court procedure of this date in America might, without exaggeration, be made as ridiculous as Moliere's satire upon the physicians of his time. In its issue of even date Collier's comments upon the conduct of the criminal court of appeals in Oklahoma in declaring its independence of precedent binding it to the reversal of criminal decisions upon purely technical error in no way prejudicial to the interests of the defendant. The match lighted in Oklahoma gives just a ray of hope that the author of the great American satire on its courts may have a chance to write it in the past tense."

Reference to the above shows that the particular phase of our court procedure which we had under discussion was the delay or evasion of justice through legal technicality. Judge Higbee's citations and argument well sustain his contention that, if applied to Wisconsin, our criticism would have been unjust. It is a fact that our supreme court has assumed broader ground than have the courts of most other states, our supreme tribunal and most of our lower courts of record having become acclimated in the atmosphere of progress that surrounds the other departments of our state government.

We are satisfied with what Wisconsin has done and with what it aims to do, and perhaps we habitually use general phrases justly applicable to a large portion of the United States which we do not intend to have reference to Wisconsin. We believe there are more states in the union to which our editorial of December 10th might have been with justice applied than there are in relation to which it would have been an injustice. No man who has read the current writings of Gilbert Roe, Senator Beveridge and Melville Davison Post, attorneys of note, who cite cases of record, can doubt that in many of our states there is much wrong with the courts. It is idle to say that it is here the judge and there the procedure. There is nothing to prevent delays and miscarriages of justice in the Wisconsin procedure itself. While the statutes may be unusually broad, it is the case law in Wisconsin that shows our enlightened advancement. In other words, we have a high degree of expedition and justice because we have able and broad and intelligent men upon the bench. This is an advantage not enjoyed in many states—states that have looked to Wisconsin for other object lessons and that may one day find an inspiration in the courts of the Badger state.

Another good substitute for capital punishment has been found. It has been discovered that it is possible to live in Philadelphia on $7.50 a week.

Willis Moore, the chief weather sharp, had better begin to think about crossing his fingers. The 4th of March is not far away.

"Leap year," says an Eastern paper, "proved to be fruitful." And doubtless there were a few lemons as well as peaches.

Quips and Cranks and Wanton Wiles

The blatant press
The columns of the blatant press are filled with good things, more or less;
For instance, on "The Use of War," Or "Germans That We Should Not Abhor,"
Or on "The Ether Vapor's Rise," Or "How to Stuff the Stable Flies." They tell of market's rise and fall, Likewise of politician's gall; Achievements grand in fields of arts, Or something new in auto parts, Of dimes that flit about the stage, Or fashions that cause men to rage. But can you tell me what's the use Of wasting space on things obtuse, When readers want to know what gink Is starring in What's-His-Name's rink; Or when will Southpaw quit the farm And exercise his throwing arm; Or when will St. Paul sluggers go Down where the Southern breezes blow?
As well to print things asinine, "Why Hens Elect to Cross a Line," If columns of the blatant press Are shy the dope sports must possess.
—St. Paul Dispatch.

In an Insane Asylum
Michael J. Drummond, commissioner of public charities, was one of a party of officials who inspected a hospital for the insane recently. It happened, after the inspection had been completed, that the party came into a long hallway leading to the street door, near which a clock hung. Mr. Drummond looked at his watch. It differed from the clock. The commissioner had an appointment at a certain hour, and was anxious to keep it, but the clock showed him that he would be late. At this moment an attendant happened along, and the commissioner said: "Is that clock right?"
"I'm sorry, sir," came the reply, "but if it was, it would not be here."
—New York Evening Post.

The Count at Home
"Yes," remarked the returned tourist, with a reminiscent smile, "I was constantly bumping into old friends and acquaintances while abroad. Went into a fashionable barbershop in the Rue de Saint Gerard, in Paris, and whom do you suppose I met there?"
"Oh, I'm no good at guessing?" said his friend. "Who was it?"
"The Count de Pompadour, who cut such a swell at Newport a year or so ago."
"Let's see—you and the count didn't mix very well at Newport, did he condescend to speak to you?"
"He certainly did. The moment I entered the tontorial parlors, he caught my eye and bowed and smiled and said, 'Monsieur is next.'"
—Will S. Gidley in Judge.

The Tramp's Golf Ball
"The trusts are doing away with competition, and when competition with its ill feeling vanishes the world will be a better place," said William Dean Howells, the author, according to the St. Paul Dispatch. He continued:
"But the trusts deserve no credit for working toward this good. For the trusts' motive is evil. The trusts, indeed, treat the public as the tramp treated the golfer."
"My good man," said a golfer in anxious tones, "have you seen a golf ball hereabout? It's my last ball, and if I lose it I shall have to give up my day's game and return to town."
"The tramp, a villainous-looking individual, answered:
"No, boss, I ain't seen no golf ball, but I've got one in my pocket that I brought from home what I don't mind sellin' you for a couple of dollars."

What They Knew of Luther
Of the painful lack of general information shown by the college student one instance will suffice. In a written test (whether in a college for young men or women is immaterial) the question was asked: "What was the secret of Luther's success as a reformer?" The question was left unanswered by the majority of the class. Some frankly avowed they did not know who Luther was. Some, however, gave answers which were greatly horrified the professors, was this: "The secret of Luther's success was his diet of worms."—Suburban Life.

Had Serious Lung Trouble—Now Well

Somehow there exists a vast amount of scepticism as to the possibility of curing Consumption. We state none but facts, and are sincere in what we assert.
If we were afflicted with Tuberculosis, we should do precisely what we ask others to do—take Eckman's Alternative promptly and faithfully. The reason we should do this and warrant we have for asking all Consumptives to take it, is that we have the reports of many recoveries, one of which follows:
"Gentlemen: For two years I was afflicted with hemorrhages of the lungs, the number totaled nearly one hundred. Our family physician advised another be fatal. However, I remained and in February of 1902, I was taken with a severe attack of pneumonia. When I recovered sufficiently to walk about the house I was left with a frightful hacking cough, which no medicine I had taken could alleviate. It was at this time, March 1902, that I learned of Eckman's Alternative. I started taking Eckman's Alternative. In a short time my cough was gone and I was pronounced well. Since that time I have had two slight attacks of pneumonia and I have resorted to no other medicine to effect a recovery.
"I am at present in excellent health and feel that as long as I can obtain Eckman's Alternative, I have no fear of Consumption. I cannot speak too highly for the good it has done."
(Signed) HOWARD L. KLOTZ.
Eckman's Alternative is effective in Bronchitis, Asthma, Hay Fever, Throat and Lung Troubles, and in unbalancing the system. Does not contain poisons, opiates or habit-forming drugs. For sale by Geo. E. Mariner, Chas. Beyschlag and other leading druggists. Ask for booklet telling of recoveries, and write to Eckman Laboratory, Philadelphia, Pa., for additional evidence.—Advertisement.

"Let us celebrate Thanksgiving gaily but temperately," said Simon Ford, the humorous hotel man of New York. "Let us not emulate the colonel."

THE FIRESIDE SERMON

By Lucius C. Clark, D. D.
Tuesday, January twenty-eight, 1913
William H. Prescott, Died January 28, 1859.
Job, 29, 15.

"I was eyes to the blind."
To be shut in with blindness from young manhood would be counted a severe affliction. To be deprived of even sight need not cause despair, with helpers, readers and with a stylus for the blind, Prescott toiled through the years. His contribution to the world's work is equal to many men with talents and with eyes to see. There was vision of an inner friend to keep him, and all like him, true to the tasks of life.

THE MARRIAGE OF CAPTAIN KETTLE

By G. J. Outcliffe Hyman.
Copyright The Bobbs-Merrill Co.

"Then quick march! Miss Dubbs. I ask your pardon for walking in front of you, but for the moment it seems necessary. You needn't carry your finger on that trigger while you're walking. Rest it on the trigger guard—yes, like that—and then it will slip handily on to the place when it's wanted. That rifle pulls off a trifle easily. Go steady, Bergash. This is the rogue's goose-step you're giving us, not a foot-race."

Mahammed Bergash, Cambridge graduate, kaid of the Western Atlas Berbers, and saint of the stock of the prophet, was cowed. Up till now he had seen in Captain Kettle the somewhat acid shipmaster and the creature of a whimsical owner; but of a sudden he recognized in him the incarnation of energy, and, if needs be, tragedy.

He fully grasped that Kettle would, if occasion demanded it, shoot him with as little compunction as he, Sidi Mahammed Bergash, would order the extinction of an inconvenient tribesman; and, in spite of himself, he was mastered.

The kaid was no coward. In ordinary tribal fighting with the Moroccan Moors he had stared death in the face a dozen times before, without awe and without tremor. But this was somehow different; the threat of death was a minor item; it was the sailor's tremendous personality that made his spirit bend.

He walked ahead as a docile guide. Twice in the wandering alleys of the house he met members of his household, and dismissed them elsewhere with a word; and finally, "That is the door, sir," he said. "May I drop one hand from my neck to open it?"

"Yes," said Captain Kettle, "open the door, look up your head again, and then march inside ahead of us."

In this ungracious procession then, Captain Kettle once more came into the society of his owner and his owner's sister, and Sir George Chesterman, on his part, could not have been more surprised if the emperor of China had walked in to pay an evening call.

Miss Chesterman, it was clear, was on the verge of a demonstration. The affair, it is true, had gone much further than she ever intended; she had, in fact, been horribly frightened (and with very good cause); but her passion for Captain Kettle was still hot, and she had in her to have thrown wild arms of gratitude round his neck, and hailed him as her world and her preserver.

But the sight of that acid, little, precise man with the red torpedo beard had a damping effect on hysterics, and something she caught in the eye of her fellow-woman clenched her self-restraint. Miss Dubbs might be in mortal danger, but to her employer's shrewd vision she was glorious with triumph.

"Sir," said Captain Kettle to Sir George, "I gather that this swine of a saint has been misbehaving himself. That being the case, I take it you will not care to stay longer under his roof."

Sir George laughed ruefully. "So great is my distaste for his hospitality that I'd give all I possess to be back once among the friendly cockroaches on the Wanzarob. But I suppose one might as well wish to be in the moon. How in the world did you get here, Skipper?"

"Walked, sir. It struck me that I might be useful to you, as owner. So I came. I propose we ride back, and that is a thing this man Bergash is going to arrange, if you will authorize him to do so. But before letting him proceed to that, I want to know if you have any complaint to make that you would like me to take payment for out of his skin?"

"I will cancel everything for a free passage to the sea."

"And you, miss?"

"No, no. Only get me away."

"Right, miss. Then if you, sir, and your sister, and Miss Dubbs will kindly make the most of this uncomfortable room for the next ten minutes, I will take Bergash outside again and have a little heart-to-heart talk with him over certain arrangements for the comfort of all of us. You have the Winchester. I'll leave you also this Hopkins Allen, which I find too straight in the stock for my particular brand of fancy shooting."

CHAPTER XXIV. A Charge of Cavalry.

GIN FOR THE KIDNEYS

Doctors agree that good, pure gin, when properly prescribed, is wonderful medicine for kidneys, liver and bladder. The one best prescription in which gin is used is given: "Six ounces good, pure gin, one-half ounce Murax compound one-half ounce fluid extract Buchu." (Be sure to get the genuine Murax compound in original sealed package.) Any good druggist has it or can quickly get it. Shake bottle of mixture well each time and take one to two teaspoonfuls three times a day after meals.

This should be taken at first sign of kidney trouble pain in the back, frequent or highly colored urination, scalding urine, rheumatic pains in the joints, puffiness under the eyes, dimmed vision. The serious forms of kidney trouble are thus prevented.

That Peculiar Lightness and Flavor

Noticed in the finest biscuit, rolls, cake, etc., is due to the absolute purity and the accurate combination of the ingredients of the ROYAL BAKING POWDER. The best things in cookery are always made and can be most readily made with the ROYAL BAKING POWDER. Hence its use is demanded in the most celebrated restaurants, in the homes of the people, wherever delicious, wholesome food is appreciated. Its sale and use extend to every civilized country in the world.

than the original architect intended, because in the course of centuries the humps of passing camels have worn a central gutter out of the hard limestone. The wall at that point is fourteen feet thick of solid masonry, and above the gateway are the usual conveniences for pouring boiling lead on unwelcome callers.

There were iron spikes on the top of the wall above the gate, and through many centuries these had been decorated with the heads of the kaid's enemies—the old heads being refreshed from time to time by those of more recent cropping. But when the latest saint returned from the lands of the infidel with a rabbit-skin B. A. hood in his saddle-bags, and a certain impatience for conservative customs, he had ordered the last selection of heads to be thrown away, and since then he had not renewed them.

All places have their customs, and though the reasons for many of them have been wiped away during the passage of years, the customs remain. In the Bergash fortress it was a habit, when you were going

Health and Beauty Helps

BY MRS. MAE MARTYN

Miss E. R.: A lotion that will help your red hands, dark face and neck permanently can be made by dissolving four ounces of spurmex in one-half pint of hot water (or witch hazel) and adding two teaspoonfuls of glycerine. This lotion will whiten away that coarse, muddy look you have. This is much better than face powder, as it does not show on the skin, and will not rub off easily, like the powder does when you wear a veil. The spurmex lotion is inexpensive and will give to any sallow, oily skin a pinkish, youthful appearance. It is fine for cold sores, chaps, freckles and as a protection to the face against harsh winds and changes of weather, I am sure you will like this spurmex lotion very much.

Virginia: Lack of exercise and eating too much solid food during the summer months account for your sallow, pimply complexion and loss of energy. What you need is a reliable system tonic and blood purifier. Try this: Dissolve an ounce of kardenine in a half pint of alcohol (not whisky) adding one-half cupful sugar and hot water to make a full quart. Take a tablespoonful before each meal and in a short time you will feel like a new person. It will give you rich, red blood, fill you with energy and put the color and look of health into your face.

Sylvia: Never wash your hair with soap. The "free" alkali in soap is injurious to the hair, and in time will eat the very life out of it, causing your hair to become streaky and split at the ends. For a really good shampoo, simply dissolve a teaspoonful of canthrox in a cup of hot water. Shampoo and rinse with abundantly, removes all dirt, dandruff and excess oil, and will leave your hair soft and glossy and fluffy.

This shampoo dries so quickly that it makes shampooing a real pleasure. After using it once you will imagine you have twice as much hair as you ever had before. This is the shampoo now used by many of the best hairdressers. After shampooing, an application of a quinzoin hair tonic (see answer to "Alma") will prove very invigorating and refreshing to your scalp.

Kate: (a) Reducing your weight without plenty of exercising and dieting may appear quite difficult, but I have a formula that has worked wonders where other remedies have failed. Put four ounces of parnotis abroad, to bedeck your camel with all his elaborate furniture in the street outside your own front door. When it was all nicely in position, you marched off through the one entrance gate of the fortress, stripped your heat to the bare hair (or mangy skin), squeezed him out through the doorway, and carried the trappings through the hole in the wall yourself.

Afterward you reassembled your ship of the desert and his furniture on the narrow causeway outside. That was all excessively inconvenient, and when there was a rush on, dangerous. Camels, and loads, and even passengers have many a time been levered over the edges of the causeway and crashed down a good ninety feet to the rocks below when the brutes really began to snarl and wrestle.

A lot of men strive for fame because of the money that goes with it. Fortunately a man seldom marries the woman he fell in love with at first sight.

Young Wife: Artificial aids for under development fool no one but the wearer. Feed the starved, shrunken tissues and your bust will soon assume its correct proportions. The vacuare treatment is reliable and can be prepared at little cost by dissolving 1½ cupfuls sugar in 1 pint water and then adding 1 ounce gal-lol. Take 2 teaspoonfuls before each meal until development is where you want it, then discontinue or over-development may follow.

Mrs. T. C.: No one can afford to neglect his or her eyes, although most people do. If you want bright, clear, beautiful eyes that will be much admired, you can have them with very little care. Get an ounce of crystos at any drug store and dissolve it in a pint of water. Put two of three drops of this tonic in each eye daily and you will be surprised how it will strengthen your weak, tired eyes and make them strong, healthy and sparkling. Many oculists who use this simple tonic get excellent results in treating eye-troubles generally. It is very soothing and has enabled many to dispense with wearing glasses.

Alma: Your scalp needs a good, stimulating quinzoin hair tonic to remove the dandruff, stop irritation and falling hair. Get from any drug store one-half pint alcohol (not whisky) and one ounce quinzoin and mix it with one-half pint water and you will have a much better tonic than any of those ready-prepared tonics you have been buying. Brush your hair daily, and twice a week apply this tonic to the scalp, rubbing it in gently. This will do wonders for your dull, lifeless, falling hair, and put your scalp in a healthy condition. This tonic will make your hair soft, silky and lustrous. Keep the scalp clean by frequent shampoos with canthrox and you will not have further trouble with your hair.

Kiamil Pasha and Shefket Pasha.

In response to public demand in Constantinople the Turkish grand vizier, Kiamil Pasha, has resigned, and Shefket Pasha, formerly minister of war and commander of the constitutional army which enthroned Mehmed V as sultan, has been appointed to take his place. Kiamil Pasha's unpopularity is due to his desire for peace, even at the cost of Adrianople.

COUNTIES TO PAY CAMPAIGN DEBTS

Will Assess Pro Rata Amount of Bills Contracted by the Democrats

MILWAUKEE, Wis., Jan. 28.—Chairman Paul A. Hemy of the democratic state central committee, today was preparing to settle the unpaid campaign bills following the decision of the committee to assess each county pro rata to make up the deficiency in the fund.

A subcommittee of the state central committee was arranging for transportation and hotel accommodations for Wisconsin democrats who plan to go to the inaugural.

Resolutions adopted at the committee session late yesterday denied the body was 'reactionary' or 'tory' and recommended to President-elect Wilson that Joseph E. Davies, democratic national committeeman, be given a place in the cabinet.

MARKET DROPS BUT PRICES STAY UP

Wholesale Meat Declines
 from High Level but Retailers Keep Up Charges

CHICAGO, Jan. 28.—Charges that retail meat dealers are maintaining unreasonably high prices in the face of a rapidly declining market, are made today by Everett C. Brown, a director in the Chicago livestock exchange. He says that although the price of top cattle on the hoof has dropped from $11.10, the high mark in December, to $8.90, the price quoted yesterday, the decline has not reached the retailers, who are still getting holiday prices for their goods.

"This rapid decline has created a near panic in the market," said Brown. "A reduction of $2.00 a hundred pounds means $500 a car load. Cattle are being rushed into Chicago in anticipation of still lower prices; the farmers are scared and are anxious to unload at once."

JERSEY TREASURER DEMOCRAT LEADER

TRENTON, N. J., Jan. 28.—After being in republican hands for nineteen years, the state treasury went to the democrats today when the legislature, in joint session, elected Edward E. Grosscup of Gloucester county, chairman of the democratic state committee and Gov. Wilson's candidate, to the position. Aside from the election of the state treasurer the principal interest in the election was in the selection of former Congressman Hughes of Paterson, democrat, for United States senator.

ODD FELLOWS TO MEET GRAND MASTER

The three La Crosse Odd Fellow lodges will hold a joint meeting in the evening of February 4 in honor of the State Grand Master Clem W. Crumb, who will come here on his official visit to give the local lodges instructions. Mr. Crumb's proposed visit was announced at the meeting of the Gateway City Lodge No. 153 last night. After the regular meeting at which three candidates were given the third degree, the lodge sat down to an oyster stew supper in the lodge parlors.

 He Ought to Make Restitution

MADISON, Wis., Jan. 28.—(Special.)—The supreme court today upheld Assemblyman Clark L. Hood in his right to set up the statute of limitations against a claim for money alleged by Anna Ott, a client, to have been collected on a promissory note for $200 she gave him for collection in 1892. The court added, however, he ought to make restitution. According to the opinion it was not until 1910 the woman learned that further collection had been made.

Mustard's Quick Relief Without the Blister!

You remember the good old-fashioned mustard plaster.

Your mother and your grandmother used to apply it whenever you had a cold, an ache or a pain.

It burned like sixty, but it surely did the work.

Here is the old family remedy, greatly improved by science and put up in Twentieth Century form.

The quick and blessed relief without the blister of the mustard, or the bother and messiness of the plaster.

MUSTEROLE is a clean, white ointment, made with the oil of mustard. For MUSTEROLE, the oil of the highest grade of mustard is refined until it is as pure as human milk can make it.

You simply rub it on the spot where the pain is—rub it on briskly—and the pain is gone.

Not a blister is left even on tender skin! Instead it has a delicious, comforting effect.

You don't have to spread MUS-

TEROLE on a cloth. Just apply it with the finger tips.

You don't have to bind on a cloth. MUSTEROLE is so penetrating that it goes right through the pores at once.

And there is nothing like MUSTEROLE for Sore Throat, Bronchitis, Tonsillitis, Croup, Stiff Neck, Asthma, Neuralgia, Headache, Congestion, Pleurisy, Rheumatism, Lumbago, Pains and Aches of the Back or Joints, Sprains, Sore Muscles.

Bruises, Chills, Frosted Feet, Colds of the Chest (it prevents Pneumonia).

At your druggist's—in 25c and 50c jars, and a special large hospital size for $2.50.

Accept no substitute. If your druggist cannot supply you, send 25c or 50c to the Musterole Company, Cleveland, Ohio, and we will mail you a jar, postage prepaid.

Mrs. James Horlick, West Philadelphia, Pa.—"My four-year-old son had severe bronchitis. I found Musterole the best thing I ever used."

WON'T HEAR BAILEY

NEW SECRETARY OF STATE OF ILLINOIS DECLINE TO ATTEND
DINNER AT WHICH EX-SENATOR WILL SPEAK

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., Jan. 28.— Harry Woods, secretary of state-elect of Illinois, sent a letter to the Springfield Commercial association, declining to attend a dinner Lincoln day because former United States Senator Joseph W. Bailey of Texas was to be a speaker. The letter follows:

"Springfield Commercial association, Springfield, Ill.—Gentlemen:
Your kind invitation to attend banquet in honor of Lincoln's birthday received. It is not for me to criticize your committee on speakers, but to listen to Joe Bailey (of Standard Oil notoriety) eulogize Lincoln would be intolerable. Others may enjoy such mockery but I beg to be excused.
HARRY WOODS."

A GOOD BREAKFAST

Some Persons Never Know What It Means

A good breakfast, a good appetite and good digestion mean everything to the man, woman or child who has anything to do, and wants to get a good start toward doing it.

A Southern man tells of his wife's "good breakfast" and also supper, made out of Grape-Nuts and cream.
He says:

"I should like to tell you how much good Grape-Nuts has done my wife. After being in poor health for the last 18 years, during part of the time scarcely anything would stay on her stomach long enough to nourish her, finally at the suggestion of a friend she tried Grape-Nuts.

"Now, after about four weeks on this delicious and nutritious food, she has picked up most wonderfully and seems as well as anyone can be.

"Every morning she makes a good breakfast on Grape-Nuts eaten just as it comes from the package with cream or milk added; and then again the same at supper, and the change in her is wonderful.

"We can't speak too highly of Grape-Nuts as a food after our remarkable experience." Name given

DRUGGIST BEYSCHLAG

SAYS THE SALE OF Gray's Yerba Santa Cough Cure in the past two weeks was very great.

THIS REMARKABLE remedy is gaining in popularity each season, because who once tries it, wants no other cough remedy.

I HAVE ALL THE popular cough remedies in the market, and yet
I sell a great deal more of the Gray's Yerba Santa Cough Cure, than of all the rest put together.

IF TROUBLED WITH a cough or cold, it will pay you to try a 50c or $1.00 bottle of it, and it will prove a splendid investment.

Respectfully yours,

DOCTOR ACCUSED IN THEIR MUDDLE

Dr. W. W. Frazer.

Dr. W. W. Frazer, a California physician, is under arrest, charged with falsifying a birth certificate. In 1910 Mrs. Charles Slingsby, wife of a retired British naval officer, gave birth to a stillborn child. Not wishing her husband to know that her child had not lived, she substituted another child that she secured through the assistance of Dr. Frazer, causing her own to be burned. Dr.
Frazer is charged with having made a birth certificate in which Mrs.
Slingsby was named as the mother of the substituted babe.

I. H. C. COMPANY SPLITS

ALLEGED HARVESTER TRUST DI-VIDES INTO TWO $70,000,000
CORPORATIONS TO HAN-DLE TRADE

CHICAGO, Jan. 28.—No effect on the pending government suit to dissolve the International Harvester company as a trust was seen today in the action taken by that company in dividing itself into two corporations, each with a capitalization of $70,000,000.

The announcement of the creation of the International Harvester corporation, formed for the purpose of taking over the company's foreign business was made yesterday. A statement made by Cyrus H. Mc-Cormick, president of the company, explained that the move was to protect the company's credit in foreign countries pending the outcome of the government suit.

A Wonderful Hair Secret

Has Made Valeska Suratt, the Beautiful Actress, Known as the Only Woman on the Stage Who Uses
No Hair Subterfuges.

"I have used many things in my day in an effort to make my por-sick hair grow, and prevent it from coming out in masses on my comb or brush. The result was absolutely fruitless. Not even the most widely known hair treatments produced any benefit. It was then I resolved to delve into the subject myself and solve my own problem. The result has been a formula which has given me my greatest pride, for today I am known as the only woman on the American stage who wears no switches, puffs, wool rolls, turbans or other hair subterfuges.

"A trial of this remarkably effective formula will certainly prove its startling effect. My hair stopped falling in a few days' time, dandruff vanished and my hair began to grow most luxuriantly. It is today part of my fortune.

"Mix a half pint of alcohol with half a pint of water, then add one ounce of beta-quinol, shake thoroughly, and it will then be ready to use. If you prefer, you can use imported bay rum instead of the water and alcohol.

"The beta-quinol you can get at almost any drug store for not more than fifty cents.

"This formula should be applied very freely on the scalp after brush-ing the scalp generously for a few minutes all over. Rub the tonic thoroughly into the scalp with the finger tips."

SOCIETY

BRIDGE AND LUNCHEON GIVEN BY D. A. R.

One of the largest and most brilliant affairs of the past week in the social world, was the bridge luncheon given Saturday at Masonic Temple
by the members of the D. A. R. chapter. Over two hundred ladies were in attendance. A delicious luncheon was served at one o'clock after which tables were formed for bridge and five hundred for those who did not care to indulge in the games.

Many of the guests carried their fancy work and formed little social groups while they discussed affairs of the day. One of the features of the affair was a talk given by Miss Van Auker of Phelps, N. Y., who is spending the winter with her brother,
Mr. C. S. Van Auker and Mrs. H. M.
Curtis, who spoke of the needs of a club house in the city and cited different cities which supported handsome ones. It was such a successful and social affair that the chapter will be encouraged to have a repetition which will probably be more popular than that of last week.

CARDS
Mrs. A. L. Grams of 1429 Main street, entertained today at bridge of four tables.

Mrs. J. B. Funke will entertain at a bridge luncheon Wednesday. There will be four tables.

Mrs. C. S. Cone and Mrs. E. C.
Bartl entertained at a bridge luncheon today at the home of Mrs.
Bartl on Cass street.

Miss Marion Dorset entertained a couple of tables of bridge yesterday afternoon. Mrs. Calvin Baker took first prize and Mrs. E. S. Case, the second.

AFTERNOON COMPANY
Mrs. F. M. Egbert entertained a party of twelve ladies Saturday afternoon.

MRS. SPICER AND MRS.
LONGBRAKE ENTERTAIN

Mrs. Ernest L. Spicer and Mrs.
George R. Longbrake entertained at a handsome reception in honor of Mrs. J. R. Robertson, who leaves the city tomorrow for her new home at Davenport, Iowa. The pretty rooms were doubly cosy and attractive in contrast to the storm which was raging outside, which, however, did not prevent many of the two hundred and twenty-five invited guests from being present. The receiving ladies stood in the small reception room and welcomed the guests upon their arrival. Mrs. E. R. Burke and Mrs.
J. A. Fairchild were mistresses of ceremony, introducing the strangers and conversing with the guests. Mrs.
H. E. West and Mrs. W. D. Iden presided at the refreshment table serving coffee and salad. Their assistants were the Misses Lena Hussa, Laura Chamberlain and Hazel Summers. Mrs. Etta Roberts had charge of the room. Mrs. W. L. Collier and Mrs. Harry Kincaid alternated in serving. Their assistants were the Misses Helen Homan, Hazel Matterson and Mildred Hussa.

The decorations throughout the house were exceedingly handsome and effective.

ENTERTAINS CLASS
Miss Alice Collins entertained the graduating class of the St. James school, and a number of her friends
Saturday night at her home, 1947
Kane street. The rooms were prettily decorated in red and white. Carnations and roses were used to decorate the tables. Following are those who were present: Helen Murphy, Marie Bamberger, Victoria Taylor,
Alice Collins, Kathryn Brooks, Grace
Peterson, Elda Anderson, Gladys
Johnson, Inga Graff, Joseph Boyle, Louis Wheeler, Ambrose Smith, Mr.
and Mrs. T. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Collins, Kathryn Brooker and Grace Perterman. The young people assisted in serving.

FAREWELL PARTY
Emma Johnson of 520 North Sixth street was given a farewell surprise party before her departure for Great Falls, Mont., and was presented with a beautiful gold ring. The evening was spent in music and dancing.
Dainty refreshments were served.
Those present were: Misses Emma Homer, Mabel Knutson, Alva Gilberg, Lilah Knutson, Edia Lystad, Boletta
Larson, Minnie Johnson, Emma Knutson, Isabelle Christianson, Stella Hanson, Alma Johnson, Alice Knutson, Erna Heidem and Emma Johnson, and Mesdames E. A. Homer, A. Lystad, P. Knutson, Morten-son, Nustad, S. Hauer, Hanson and J. Johnson. All reported a good time.

NEW DISCOVERY QUICKLY CURES KIDNEY AND BLADDER TROUBLES

Chronic Sufferer Finds Re- lief After Few Doses Are Taken

If you are bothered with backache or rheumatism, have disagreeable, annoying bladder or urinary disorders to contend with—or suffer with any other of the many miseries that come from weak kidneys, here is a guaranteed remedy you can depend upon, no matter what else may have failed to cure you.

It is a positive fact that the new discovery, Croxone, promptly overcomes such diseases. It is the most wonderful remedy ever made for ridding the system of uric acid, removing the cause and curing the troubles.

It soaks right in and cleans out the stopped up kidneys and makes them filter and sift out all the poisonous waste matter from the blood.

It neutralizes and dissolves the uric acid that lodges in the joints and muscles, causing rheumatism; sooties muscles, causing rheumatism;
soothes and heals the delicate linings of the bladder; and puts the kidneys and urinary organs in a clean, strong, healthy condition.

More than a few doses of Croxone are seldom required to relieve even the obstinate long standing cases, while it cures the most severe forms of kidney, bladder trouble, and rheumatism in a surprisingly short time.

You will find Croxone entirely different from all other remedies. There is nothing else on earth like it. It is so prepared that it is practically impossible to take it into the human system without results. An original package costs but a trifle at any first class drug store. All druggists are authorized to personally return the purchase price if Croxone fails to give the desired results the very first time you use it.

Membership Campaign Inaugurated at Local Institution with Five Teams in the Field

SIX DIRECTORS ARE ELECTED

Three Are Re-elected While Three New Directors Are Chosen at Meeting

Last Night

To gain 250 new members in ten days is the task before the girls of the local Young Women's Christian association.

Announcement of a membership contest, to continue for ten days, was made at the annual business meeting of the association last night.
The contest is to be in the nature of an automobile race, each of the five teams representing some make of automobile, the cars to advance according to the number of new members secured. Leaders in the contest are: Alma Ruden, Imperial; Bertha Hoefke, Buick; Grace Wallace, Hudson; Elizabeth Haebich, Winton Six; Edna Hanson.

Returns will be received at the association building every day and posted on the chart, and it is hoped that by the close of the campaign 250 new members will have been secured.

The annual business meeting last night was preceded by a supper at which there were approximately a hundred members present. Supper was served informally in the gymnasium, members of the social committee serving.

At the meeting, which was presided over by Mrs. Finch, a complete report was given by the general secretary, followed by the annual report of the gymnasium department. This department shows an increase of fifty-eight over last year. The report of the treasurer was given by Mrs.
Cilley.

Three directors, Mrs. W. R. Finch, Mrs. C. L. Colman and Dr. Sara Nimocks, were re-elected and three new directors, Mrs. A. A. Chubb, Mrs. Geo.
Bradish and Mrs. C. F. Emory, elected.

Following the election, Miss Harriet Broad, city territorial secretary, spoke for a few minutes, and gave the girls many valuable suggestions for the membership campaign. Miss Broad said the first thing needed for the local association was an increase in the membership, the number of new members enrolling during the past year, thirty-nine, being far below the number that should be secured in an association of this class.

At the close of the meeting, Miss Broad had a talk with the leaders of the teams in the membership contest, giving them special directions as to how to prosecute the work and aiding them considerably with her suggestions.

Miss Broad left last night for Chicago and from there will go to Flint, Mich., where a contest similar to the one inaugurated here is in progress.

FAVOR COMPULSORY LABOR ARBITRATION

Civic Federation Sees Danger of Tie-up in Industries Threatened with Strikes

DEMANDS WOOD PROSECUTION

Seth Low Urges Immediate Trial of Woolen Trust Head on Dynamite Planting Charge

NEW YORK, Jan. 28.—The dominant note at all of the sessions of the National Civic federation's thirteenth annual meeting which began in the Hotel Astor with noted representatives of capital and labor in attendance was the possible danger of a general tie-up of the industries of the country through strikes now threatened and the necessity of some method of compulsory arbitration being decided on.

Seth Low, president of the federation, declared that because the National Civic federation is "one of the most powerful agencies in the country for bringing about reconciliation of interests in particular cases," it is "supported by the American Federation of Labor and is an anathema to the socialists." He declared that industrial unionism, as taught by the I. W. W. is "full of danger to both workers and employers."

Low demanded that the Massachusetts authorities immediately push the prosecution of William Wood, president of the American Woolen company, indicted for the dynamite planting in the Lawrence strike. He explained that he did not assume Mr. Wood guilty, but was merely urging that trial on the indictment be speedy.

Low opposed competition in public utilities because he declared it interfered with efficiency. He declared, however, that if public utility corporations did not give the highest class of service, public ownership was their remedy.

He advocated control by federal license of interstate corporations.

Low declared he believed the people were willing to pay higher freight rates to enable the railroads to increase the wages of their employees and highly praised the Erdman act and arbitration plans in general.

Marcus M. Marks, chairman of the Industrial Mediation department led the discussion of the question of the industrial mediation laws, making an appeal for concerted action to secure legislation everywhere which would prevent strikes.

OFFERS TO HELP GENERAL SICKLES

Comrade in Arms and Wife of Confederate General Both Offer Him Aid

OMAHA, Neb., Jan. 28.—General Granville M. Dodge, hero of the civil war, today declared that he would be glad to aid General Daniel E. Sickles in his financial troubles.

General Dodge declared that he had not been asked but in case he was requested to act, he would do all in his power to help his comrade in arms.

Mrs. Helen D. Longstreet, widow of the famous confederate general, came to the aid of her husband's civil war foe, General Daniel E. Sickles, on Monday with an offer to raise $23,476 among the "ragged and maimed followers of Lee" to pay General Sickles' alleged debt to the state of New York.

E. F. WEGE ATTENDS SHOW IN CHICAGO

Ernest F. Wege, president of the Sterling Machinery company, returned from the Chicago cement show today where his company had a full line of their machines on exhibition. Mr. Wege was greatly encouraged by receiving a large number of orders from building contractors and cement workers for Sterling machines. The officers of the company expect that they will either have to move into larger quarters or build a new building in the near future to accommodate their rapidly growing business. The Sterling concrete machines have found a ready market ever since their manufacture was begun in this city and new improvements are constantly being made on the machines.

FIVE SENATORS ELECTED.

CHEYENNE, Wyo., Jan. 28.—Francis E. Warren was re-elected United States senator at noon today when the two houses of the legislature voted in separate session.

TOPEKA, Kan., Jan. 28.—In a preliminary ballot today the Kansas senate voted unanimously for W. P. Thompson, democrat, for United States senator. The house gave Thompson a majority.

AUSTIN, Texas, Jan. 28.—Editor R. M. Johnson to fill the vacancy caused by United States Senator Bailey's resignation, was defeated today for the short term by Morris Sheppard. Sheppard was also elected for the long term senatorship.

COLUMBIA, S. C., Jan. 28.—A fight against re-election of Senator B. R. Tillman started by Senator Macbeth Young failed to gain headway this afternoon. The house re-elected Tillman.

SANTA FE, N. M., Jan. 28.—United States Senator A. B. Fall was re-elected by the two houses of the New Mexico legislature in separate session today.

Official Messenger with Electoral Vote Goes Through Capital for Unknown Reason

WASHINGTON, Jan. 28.—Arizona's official messenger, W. T. Webb, charged by his state with delivery to the president of the senate of the new commonwealth's count of votes in the November elections, was "found" today in New York—but the official record of votes is still missing here. It will be delivered this afternoon, according to Senator Ashurst. The vote will probably be counted anyway. The law requires that the votes must be received by the 27th, except under extraordinary conditions, but since the copy of the document is here, Webb's delay will probably be overlooked.

"He went through Washington to New York," Ashurst said. "I don't know why he did."

Ashurst was extremely indignant but interceded with the senate authorities not to impose the penalty provided for delay in transmitting the votes—loss of all mileage.

STODDARD BELL-BOY CONFESES TO THEFT OF JAR OF COPPERS FROM A. QUACKENBUSH

Fred Hegen, 19, confessed late this afternoon to stealing a jar of pennies from the residence of A. Quackenbush, 1409 Rose street, about a week ago.

William Desmond of the Combination saloon, had a guessing contest, in which he displayed a jar of pennies, the object being to guess number of pennies in the jar. Mr. Quackenbush wishing to win the contest, procured a similar jar, in which he put 600 pennies. About a week ago, he discovered that it was gone from where he had left it in his home.

The police discovered that Hegen had deposited 600 pennies in the Exchange State Bank, and he was arrested. Hegen was employed as a bell boy in the Stoddard Hotel.

DECISION IN WILL CASE IS AFFIRMED

Supreme Court Refuses to Overturn Higbee's Judgment in Case Brought by Evenson Heirs

Four Nieces Who Were Left Trifling Sums Alleged Undue Influence by Rev. A. Sagen

MADISON, Wis., Jan. 28.—(Special.)—The appeal of the heirs of Ouden Evenson, La Crosse, to break his will, leaving the bulk of a $25,000 estate to institutions owned by the Norwegian Evangelical Lutheran synod, failed today in the supreme court. Judge E. C. Higbee's decision admitting the will to probate was upheld.

Four nieces who had been left trifling sums sought to break the will on the ground that the executor, Rev. Andrew Sagen of La Crosse, financial agent of the synod, had used influence on behalf of the church. Evenson left an estate of $25,000.

The case was an appeal from a judgment of the La Crosse county circuit court affirming a judgment of the will to probate. The contestants are Clara Parker, Janesville, Wis.; Lucy Rust, Eliza Evenson and Josephine Bennett, all of Chicago, nieces of the deceased. These were his nearest relatives.

Among his benefactions were: Church Extension fund of Norwegian, Evangelical Lutheran synod, $3,000; Home for Old People, near Stoughton, Wis., owned by synod, $1,000; Martin Luther Orphans' Home near Stoughton, owned by the synod, $1,000; the Mission for Seamen, $1,000; Norwegian Lutheran college, Decorah, Ia., $2,000; Lutheran seminary, Hamlin, St. Paul, Minn., $2,000; Gale college, Galesville, Wis., $2,000; H. A. Preus academy Albia, Dane county, $2,000.

Will Written by Pastor

The briefs of contestants' counsel alleged the testimony showed the will was in Rev. Mr. Sagen's handwriting, that the deceased could read and write English but little, that the will was executed at a bank in La Crosse where the deceased was the depository of the funds of the synod, that by reason of a stroke of paralysis Evenson was in a mental condition that rendered him incompetent to execute his will understandingly, and that the will was not that of deceased but was procured by the overpowering influence of Sagen so as to destroy the free agency of the testator. Evenson died at West Salem, La Crosse county.

The contestants asked the supreme court to reverse the judgment; with instructions that the will should be denied admission to probate.

COMMITTEE MEETING CALLED.

A meeting of the ordinance, finance and park committees of the common council and the park commissioners has been called by Mayor John Dengler for Wednesday night in the office of the mayor in the city hall. The request of the La Crosse Stone company not to include their land in the city limits when the Hixon park addition is made will be one of the things discussed.

LONDON, Jan. 28.—Renewed serious rioting, which resulted in the arrest of Mrs. Drummmond, Sylvia Pankhurst and a dozen of the best known of the militant suffragists, took place about Parliament house tonight.

The women gathered and in pursuance of a definite plan, tried to "rush" Lloyd George, who is now most bitterly hated by them for what they term his attempt to defeat them.

LONDON, Jan. 28.—Three militant suffragettes who refused to give their names this afternoon smashed the windows of the home office with stones. They were promptly arrested and locked up at Bow street to await trial. Home Secretary McKenna was in the office but was not within the zone of fire.

LONDON, Jan. 28.—"Not one cent for tribute," the slogan of the militant suffragettes when arrested, was reiterated today in Bow street police court by Mrs. Despard, when she chose to go to jail for 14 days rather than to pay a fine of $10.

Mrs. Despard was arrested last night for haranguing a crowd from the steps of St. Martin's church, in Trafalgar square.

Another militant, who refused steadfastly to give her name, was sent to prison for a week on a charge of inciting a riot.

There was vigorous denial today that the young woman arrested last night in St. Stephen's hall, adjoining the house of commons, was Miss Sylvia Pankhurst, the youngest daughter of Mrs. Emmeline Pankhurst, leader of the militants. The young woman, caught in the act of attempting to smash the glass of a picture with a stone wrapped in a handkerchief, was held prisoner for two hours and then released. She refused to give her name.

Scotland Yard heads were confident today of their ability to cope with the situation because they claimed to be in possession of the plans of the suffragettes. Women detectives several weeks ago joined the ranks of the militants and obtained access to the inner circles. Winning the confidence of women like Mrs. Pankhurst, Mrs. Despard, Miss Annie Kenny and other leaders, they learned the suffragette plans, authorities say, and by this means, the police will be able to checkmate them.

Despite the assurances of the police, though, London today feared a reign of terror. Utterances of Mrs. Pankhurst, Mrs. Despard and others were to the effect that the women intended to break every law in the calendar except that against murder. By a campaign of smashing violence, they plan to annoy the public so that there will be a clamor from all quarters for the government to give women the ballot.

DUBLIN, Jan. 28.—Irish suffragettes at noon made an onslaught on Dublin castle, the official building of the lord lieutenant of Ireland and smashed several windows. Three of the women were promptly arrested and sent to jail to be held for trial.

CHICAGO, Jan. 28.—Militant suffragettes in England were soundly denounced here today by Mrs. Catherine Waugh McCulloch, a suffragette leader, as a disgrace to the cause.

"These women in London are doing the cause of suffrage in the United States and all over the world infinite harm," she said.

EGG CONTEST IS POPULAR MOVE

Western Wisconsin Poultry Association Endorses Dunn Plan at Meeting Last Night

TO BE TAKEN UP BY BOARD

Farmers and Fanciers Promise to Enter Birds in School Laying Contest

The expediency of the proposed egg laying contest to be conducted by the county, the idea of which originated with M. Dunn, will be launched before the board of trustees of the La Crosse County School of Agriculture and Domestic Science at a special meeting to be held next week for that purpose.

At a meeting of the Western Wisconsin Poultry association held at Malin hall last night, Professor Morris of the county school said that the proposition will be laid before the board and if it meets their approval, they will ask the county board of supervisors for an appropriation sufficient to cover part of the expense. This, he said, will be between $300 and $400.

Enthusiasm Over Contest

A suggestion to apply to the state legislature for a small appropriation to carry on the contest was abandoned.

Easy to Economize

The general belief that providing shelter for chickens is an expensive proposition was taken up by M. Dunn who declared that he had furnished shelter for fifty chickens at a cost of $8.

Mr. Dunn described the chicken house he had built which had a floor space of eight by ten feet and was eight feet high. He constructed it entirely from dry goods boxes which cost $2.25, added a window for 50 cents and spent the remaining $5.25 for one ply roofing paper with which he lined the house and wire netting which covered the open front.

"Artificial heat is entirely unnecessary for fowl and the only precaution which is essential is to provide against a draft," said Mr. Dunn.

Bird Judging

F. J. Kircheis gave a short talk on the judging of the Silver Spangled Hamburgs, illustrating with a high breed bird of his own which has been awarded eleven firsts and two second prizes at leading poultry shows in the United States and Canada, including the New York, Chicago and Winnipeg exhibitions. He also spoke on the breeding of high class birds.

GOPHER SENATE BEATS SUFFRAGE

ST. PAUL, Minn., Jan. 28.—Suffrage was defeated in the senate this afternoon by a vote of 30 to 33, after an animated debate witnessed by a crowded gallery of women.

Heat That Makes Iron Boil.

Most remarkable of all the phases of the utilization of extreme heat is the discovery of the welding material known as thermite. The inventor discovered that aluminum is very much attracted to oxygen and holds it closer than a brother. Therefore he mixed granulated aluminum with oxide of iron, for the lighter metal wants oxygen, and the oxide of iron has it to give. A small quantity of magnesium filings was placed on top of the mixture and a storm match applied, and immediately a mass of molten iron was seen boiling at a temperature of 3,000 degrees centigrade—much higher than any temperature in ordinary use.—New York American.

Why It Is "The Thunderer."

It was mud splashing that gained the London Times its nickname of the Thunderer. The name was first applied when two women were bespattered with mud by a horseman riding much too close to them. The Times in a leading article harshly criticizing his bad manners alleged that the horseman was the Duke of Cumberland. A denial was made on behalf of the duke, and the Times then published a second article beginning, "When a few days ago we thundered out"—and popular appreciation of this modest expression saw to it that the nickname stuck even tighter than the mud.—London Chronicle.

The African Trading Instinct.

"One of the most interesting transactions I know of," writes J. H. Harris in "Dawn In Darkest Africa," "occurred in a certain British colony. A chief, for some reason, was in great need of a large elephant's tusk, and after fruitless endeavors to obtain one a native trader relieved the old man's anxiety by offering to deliver a tusk the required size, to cost about $400, within a month. Promptly to time, the tusk was delivered—the cute trader had cabled to Europe for it. Other competitors, remarks the author, had tried their "up country" stores, but it never occurred to them to order from Europe.

DERIDES LONGWORTH

WITNESS ANGERS T. R. S. SON-IN-LAW BY CALLING HIM "COTILLON LEADER" AND "LION"

WASHINGTON, Jan. 28.—"Cotillon leader," "social lion," and a few other titles were flung at Representative "Nick" Longworth today in a hot verbal duel between the Ohio representative and Frank P. Bennett, editor of the American Wool and Cotton Reporter.

Longworth was attempting to get a "yes" or a "no" answer from Bennett who persisted in going into technical detail.

"Answer me, please," demanded Longworth.

"I can," responded the witness, "only by giving you the business experience which you lack."

"You have no experience which I covet," retorted Longworth.

"Neither have you, since I don't lead cotillions, or play the social lion," answered Bennett.

"You know as much of both those subjects as I do," shouted Longworth, his face coloring.

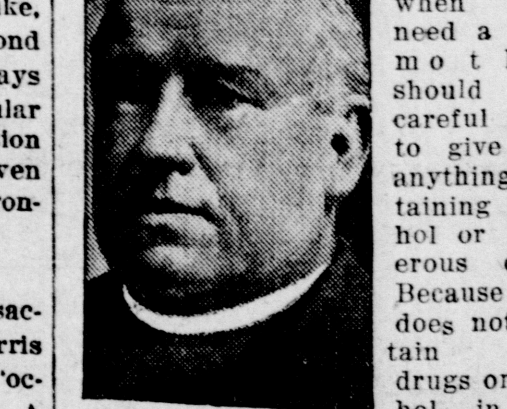

"Your constituents evidently didn't think so," said Bennett, taking a step forward toward the representative as Chairman Underwood rapped for order.

"That's a fine answer. I thank you," Longworth said with freezing politeness. "You're a gentleman."

Succeeding this, Bennett also had a sharp clash with Representative Fordney of Michigan.

The witness asked for free wool and a 50 per cent duty on manufactured articles.

OSHKOSH MEN MAKE WORLD'S RECORD

Team Scores 1,066 for a Single Game in Ten Pin Tourney at Beaver Dam

BEAVER DAM, Wis., Jan. 28.—Shooting in rare form and displaying a class of bowling which gave them a grand total of 2,933, the Only Ones of Oshkosh lived up to their name both literally and figuratively in the first day of real bowling at the annual state tenpin meet here Sunday afternoon.

The total of 2,933 registered by the Only Ones, made up of S. and C. Rasmussen, McCarty, Teela, and Koeck, incidentally broke the state record, a national record, and will undoubtedly go down as one of the most remarkable performance in the history of the sport. The records broken by the Only Ones in their turn on the drives follow:

STATE RECORD
Old—1906, Clippers of Oshkosh, 2,902.
New—1913, Only Ones of Oshkosh, 2,933.

NATIONAL RECORD
Old single game—1911, Flanners of Chicago, 1,040.

New single game—1913, Only Ones, Oshkosh, 1,069.

A peculiar coincidence in the performance of the Oshkosh five man team lies in the fact that the former record was held by the Clippers of Oshkosh.

As far as the world's record is concerned in the single game, the previous mark was made by the Flanners of Chicago at the St. Louis A. B. C. in 1911 when they shot 1,040. The grand total of 2,933 stands next to the world's record in the national meet which is held by the Lipmans of Chicago, who shot 2,962 at the A. B. C. in 1909.

The mark coming so early in the tourney with little or no big counts to urge on the alley knights, is considered little short of remarkable by critics here, who expect that the total will easily remain until the close of the tourney with little likelihood that it will be topped in the A. B. C. at Toledo, at least as far as the single game is concerned which assures the Oshkosh knights that their efforts will be recognized in a more substantial way when the annual distribution of awards on the part of the A. B. C. comes round.

THE GOVERNOR'S MESSAGE

Agricultural Co-operation

The federal census of 1910 showed a substantial increase in the total population of the state. This increase, however, was not uniform but was due largely to a gain in the population of cities and towns. Many country districts actually lost population and others made but slight gains. Nineteen counties, mostly devoted to farming, declined in total population and twenty-nine in rural population. Meanwhile the city of Kenosha, largely devoted to manufacturing, doubled in numbers and the city of Milwaukee, the chief industrial center of Wisconsin, increased more in population than all the rural districts of the state combined. But the city ward drift of population is not confined to Wisconsin or any particular section of the country. It is nation wide and is due to numerous and complex causes. Some of these represent social progress but others indicate the existence of serious defects in the economic and social conditions of country life.

So far as it is within our power therefore, steps should be taken to aid people who live in the country to improve their business methods, their systems of marketing and their credit facilities—in short, their general economic and social condition. The legislature of 1911 took this matter up in a very commendable way. It created the state board of public affairs and directed it to make an investigation of co-operation and marketing. This work has been done. Among other things it covers co-operative buying and selling and co-operative credit.

Co-operative marketing is not new in Wisconsin. Its history is part of the industrial history of the state. With us it has been a group movement, not a centralized co-ordinate undertaking, and the success or failure of each group has depended almost entirely upon the initiative, resourcefulness and business ability of the members themselves.

Some groups studied the principle of co-operation, believed in it and worked for it. They mastered its fundamental requirements, secured good business management, ample financial support, and installed complete systems of accounts. The co-operative dairy factory or warehouse was their own—a thing to be watched and guarded with jealous care. Other groups attempted co-operation and failed because of ignorance of fundamental principles, poor business judgment, inadequate accounting systems, jealousy and petty strife. There was no central body to aid or advise them at the critical time of organization or at any other difficult point along the path. Each society went its own way serenely and its success or failure depended almost entirely upon the business ability and resourcefulness of its individual members.

After a study of the movement abroad, we know that co-operation has been a powerful factor in the progress and development of every country in Europe where it has been tried. By means of it a large part of Denmark was slowly but gradually changed from a land of barren sand dunes to one of the most productive countries in the world. Ireland was a place of misery, poverty and despair but largely through co-operation it is now being slowly but surely transformed into a land of contentment and plenty.

Economic pressure in Europe forced men to unite, to master the fundamental principles of mutual helpfulness and to adopt sound business and accounting methods. European countries now teach co-operation to the children in the schools, instruct the grownup farmers in its principles and methods and in fact extend a helping hand wherever possible.

The success of agricultural co-operation in Wisconsin has not been so marked as in Europe. But this state has stood well to the front in this great new movement. Its cooperative cheese factories and creameries are numerous and successful. Its fruit growers' associations are sources of pride and profit. All of its co-operative undertakings promise well.

Two steps were necessary before co-operative associations could be established on a firm foundation in this state. The first was to pass a law providing for the organization and management of co-operative societies. The second is to educate and assist all persons interested in the subject in the methods to be pursued and the dangers to be avoided.

The first step was taken by the legislature of 1911 and the results already secured under this law mark it as one of the wisest and most beneficial of the session. The investigations made by the state board of public affairs prove conclusively that the next step is just as important. Many co-operative societies sorely need the instruction and assistance of a conservative and all practical organization, and all could benefit by it. Such a system has proved of invaluable assistance to the co-operative societies of Europe. I strongly urge therefore that some provision for this be now made.

NEW YORK, Jan. 28.—William E. Corey, whose testimony last week appeared to favor the government's suit against the Steel trust of which he was formerly president, appeared in the opposite role today, when Judge Jacob M. Dickenson began a redirect examination.

fourth of his personal fortune was invested in the Steel corporation, he was naturally in favor of the company and against the government. He said the price of $28 a ton was a fair price for steel rails, and refusing to admit that the price was dependent upon any pool.

Bowels Get Weak As Age Advances

The First Necessity Is to Keep the Bowels Gently Open With a Mild Laxative Tonic

Healthy old age is so absolutely dependent upon the condition of the bowels that great care should be taken to see that they act regularly. The fact is that as age advances the stomach muscles become weak and inactive and the liver does not store up the juices that are necessary to promote digestion.

Some help can be obtained by eating easily digested foods and by plenty of exercise, but this latter is irksome to most elderly people. One thing is certain, that a state of constipation should always be avoided as it is dangerous to life and health. The best plan is to take a mild laxative as often as is deemed necessary. But with equal certainty it is suggested that cathartics, purgatives, physics, salts and pills be avoided, as they do but temporary good and are so harsh as to be a shock to a delicate system.

A much better plan, and one that thousands of elderly people are following, is to take a gentle laxative tonic like Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, which acts as nearly like nature as is possible. In fact the tendency of this remedy is to strengthen the stomach and bowel muscles and so train them to act naturally again, when medicines of all kinds can usually be dispensed with. This is the opinion of many people of different ages, among them Mr. O. P. Miller, Baroda, Mich., who writes: "I am 80 years old and have been constipated for many years. Since receiving your sample bottle I have procured two 50c bottles and find that it is the best remedy I ever used and does just what you claim for it to the very letter. I can not recommend it too highly."

A bottle can be bought of any druggist at fifty cents or one dollar. People usually buy the fifty cent size first, and then, having convinced themselves of its merits they buy the dollar size, which is more economical. Results are always guaranteed or money will be refunded. Any elderly person can follow these suggestions with safety and the assurance of good results.

If no member of your family has ever used Syrup Pepsin and you would like to make a personal trial of it before buying it in the regular way of a druggist, send your address—a postal will do—to Dr. W. B. Caldwell, 417 Washington St., Monticello, Ill., and a free sample bottle will be mailed you.

GRIM REAPER TAKES MANY AT SPARTA

SPARTA, Wis., Jan. 28.—On Saturday, Jan. 25, Henry Foster, one of the pioneers of Sparta, passed away after an illness of several days with pneumonia. Funeral services will be held from the home on East Oak street at two o'clock tomorrow afternoon, providing a son, Harry, who is now enroute home from Seattle, Wash., arrives by that time.

Henry Foster was born May 12, 1856, in Jefferson county, New York. He came to Sparta in the early fifties, returned to Sandusky, N. Y., in 1853 where he was married and at once came back here and went into business as a harness maker, which he carried on for fifty years, when he retired because of failing health. He is survived by three children: Mrs. Wm. Kemp, Jr., of Troy, N. Y.; Harry W., of Seattle, Wash., and Carl F., of St. Paul, Minn.

Miss Martha Clough
The many friends of Miss Martha Clough, aged 22 years, were filled with sorrow Friday evening to hear of her death at 5:30 o'clock that afternoon, as the result of diabetes. She had not been feeling well for some days, but was stricken down by a couple of days previous to her death, at the home of her mother, Mrs. A. B. Clough. Her father and two sisters have been taken in past years by this same disease.

Brief funeral services were held from the home at 9:00 a. m. yesterday, conducted by Rev. F. W. Straw, her pastor, and the remains were taken to Chippewa Falls for burial.

Mrs. Nellie Thorburn Miller
On Thursday afternoon of last week, the remains of Mrs. A. C. Miller of Ukiah, Cal., were laid to rest in Woodlawn cemetery, this city. The deceased was a daughter of Mrs. Caroline Thorburn of this city and a popular member of Sparta's best circles of young people. She was married in 1904 to A. C. Miller of Los Angeles, Cal., and has since resided in Mexico, Minn., and finally at Ukiah, Cal. Her death was sudden, her illness having been but of eighteen hours' duration and was a complete surprise to her Sparta friends.

Locals
At the home of Mr. and Mrs. Will Brotherton, on Jan. 20th, occurred the wedding of the latter's sister, Miss Gladys Zastrow of Mather, to Will Rich of Rock Island, Ill. The bride was well known and highly esteemed in her home town and the groom is a graduate of the Rock Island high school and a prosperous builder and contractor. That city will be their future home.

Mrs. Ed. Belky entertained a number of relatives and friends at a five o'clock tea Friday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Wagner of La Crosse, were brief callers in Sparta last week, and also at Leon at the home of their daughter, Mrs. Ray Austin.

H. F. Hebard is recovered sufficiently to be able to again attend to business, after having had a hard siege of grippe and fever.

Miss Alice Johnson is entertaining her Sunday school teacher, Miss Frances Saries and the other members of her class, this afternoon, having them with her to assist in the celebration of her twelfth birthday. George Dake, former Sparta man, now located at Northfield, Minn., has been calling on friends in this city. He is working at his old trade, carpentry and building, in partnership with another Sparta man, L. V. Huschka.

NOT LAZY NOT STUPID

Friends Fussed at Her For Being Lazy, When All She Needed Was Cardui, The Woman's Tonic.

Springfield, Tenn.—In an interesting letter from this place, Miss C. L. Fuquay writes as follows: "I was taken sick at my sister's home, got up too soon and came to my home, which threw me into chills. This resulted in womanly troubles."

I was without either energy or appetite, and my friends fussed at me for my stupidity, and said I was lazy.

But anyhow, I grew worse, and after taking to my bed, I was under the treatment of a physician for over a month, without relief.

At last my mother bought me a bottle of Cardui, the woman's tonic, and before the first bottle was gone, I was eating heartily, and before I had taken all of four bottles, I was O. K. in every way.

Cardui is what brought me relief, and I hope every woman who suffers as I did, will give it a trial."

Cardui goes to the weak spots, and helps to make them strong. It is for the weak, tired, nervous, irritable women, who feel as though everything were wrong, and need something to quiet their restless nerves, and strengthen their worn-out systems.

Thousands of women now enjoy good health, as a result of taking Cardui. Why not you? Try it.

CONFESSES AT DEATH

HOLD-UP MAN ADMITS TWENTY CRIMES AS LIFE EBBS FROM WOUNDS GIVEN BY HIS INTENDED VICTIM

CHICAGO, Jan. 28.—Confession of twenty hold-ups in four weeks came today from the lips of Peter Boor, dying from bullet wounds inflicted by Clarence McSweeney, a police operator, whom Boor and his brother, Albert, tried to hold up last night. Told that he could live only a few hours, Boor whispered the story. He died at ten a. m.

The two brothers last night stole up behind McSweeney as he was leaving his station and ordered him to hold up his hands. Instead he wheeled around and fired. A duel ensued, in which McSweeney dropped with a slight wound in the thigh and Boor fell with three bullets in his body. The brother was arrested later.

MISS MARLOWE ILL
CHICAGO, Jan. 28.—Julia Marlowe, who was brought here suffering from ptomaine poisoning, was reported to be much improved today.

The Secret of Soft White Hands and Arms

Only with KIRK'S FLAKE (White) Soap can you be sure to have your clothes wash easier and quicker and whiter than ever before and at the same time feel perfectly sure that they are not being rotted with chemicals and "dirt starters" and that your hands will be soft and white as when you began your work.

KIRK'S FLAKE

For the roughest work of household or laundry or for washing the most delicate fabrics, you will find that KIRK'S FLAKE (White) Soap will do the work quicker, easier and more economically than any other soap on the market.

PROFESSOR QUILTS BECAUSE OF VIEWS

W. C. Fisher Asked to Resign from Wesleyan Faculty Because He Would Close Churches

MIDDLETOWN, Conn., Jan. 28.—Because he recently declared he believed the country would be better off if many of the churches were ordered closed by law, Prof. Willard C. Fisher, one of the most noted educators in the country, has been forced out of Wesleyan university faculty. The resignation was at the direct demand of President William Shanklin of Wesleyan, after Dr. Fisher had absolutely refused to change his expressed views.

In an interchange of letters Prof. Fisher told the president that in his address in Hartford he advocated a more open Sunday, allowing a man to do pretty nearly everything that did not disturb the day for others, and that he saw no religious inconsistency in "man's having an uproarously good time on Sunday if there was no disturbance of the religious or other uses of the day by others."

MADISON TO PLAY HIGH SCHOOL TEAM

Outcome of Game Will Decide Eligibility to State Tournament at Appleton

The high school basketball team will play the first real game of basketball that will determine to a great extent their chances of attending the state tournament at Appleton on Friday night when they meet the Madison high school team in the normal gymnasium. The authorities of Lawrence college under whose direction the state tournament is being held, recognize both teams, together with Baraboo, as the leading teams in the southwestern district of the state and the team which wins this game will be quite sure of going to the meet. Madison has already defeated the team representing the Baraboo high school by the close score of 24 to 22. The game was played at Baraboo and it is safe to say that Madison will be the victor when these two teams meet again.

This leaves the capital city boys and the local team as the two strongest teams in the district and if the locals can win this game by a good margin they will have the edge on Madison.

The Madison team is made up of entirely new men as all of their last year men have graduated. While the locals have very few seasoned players they nevertheless have two men who have had two years on the team, Captain Weisse and Dornbach being excellent men around which to develop a new lot of players.

Coach Otto Seller is putting the men through hard work in preparation for the game.

HE HAD UNRULY HAIR

Couldn't do a thing with it. Stood in every direction at once, then in no direction. This was before he used Hall's Hair Renewer. Now his hair looks well-kept, stays in place. The scalp is clean and healthy. Hair is growing faster. No dandruff. No falling hair. Not the slightest danger of coloring the hair.

PROFESSOR WILL ADDRESS AD CLUB

Prof. Starch of the state university will deliver a lecture before the La Crosse Ad club on Wednesday evening, Jan. 29, at the Longfellow school building, Sixth and Vine streets. His subject is "Advertising as a Business Force," and undoubtedly will be of great interest to every one interested in advertising. The club extends an invitation to every advertiser in La Crosse to hear this talk.

Prof. Starch is the first of a number of lecturers that the local club expects to bring here this season to talk on advertising. In this way the business men of La Crosse will have a chance to hear some of the best advertising men of this section of the country and learn of the successes that have been made in many campaigns.

The DOCTOR'S ADVICE

by Dr. Lewis Baker

The questions answered below are general in character, the symptoms or diseases are given and the answers will apply to any case of similar nature.

Those wishing further advice, free, may address Dr. Lewis Baker, College Bldg., College-Ellwood Sts., Dayton, O., enclosing self-addressed stamped envelope for reply. Full name and address must be given but only initials or fictitious name will be used in my answers. The prescriptions can be filled at any well-stocked drug store. Any druggist can order of wholesaler.

"Old Soldier" writes: "I would like to know what to do for rheumatism, as I am so crippled that I cannot walk. Please answer at once."

Answer: Here is the best remedy for rheumatism that is known, and it taken according to directions you will soon be out again and be strong and well. Get 2 drams of iodide of potassium; 4 drams sodium salicylate; one-half oz. wine of colchicum; 1 oz. comp. essence cardiol; 1 oz. comp. fluid balmwort, and 5 ozs. of syrup sarsaparilla comp. Mix and take a teaspoonful at meal time and again before going to bed.

"Laura" says: "Some time ago I contracted a very severe cold and cough. I have tried many remedies, but they do not seem to help me at all. I wish you would advise me what to do."

Answer: What you need is a laxative cough syrup, one that will drive the cold from your system. The following prescription will cure your cold and cough: Get a 2 1/2 oz. package of concentrated essence mentholaxene and make according to directions on the bottle. Take a teaspoonful every hour or two or until your cold is better. This will cure you in a very few days.

"Stenographer" writes: "I can scarcely do my work on account of the terrible distress in my stomach after eating. I have a heavy feeling in my stomach and gas forms. I am also constipated."

Answer: This condition if neglected will cause appendicitis. You should begin at once and take tablets triopentine, which can be bought in any drug store at small cost. They are packed in sealed cartons with full directions accompanying the package. I am sure many cases of appendicitis could be prevented by the use of triopentine.

"A. R." writes: "Please send me a prescription for a good tonic. I am weak and languid all the time, have no appetite and cannot sleep at night."

Answer: Obtain the following ingredients from your druggist and take for several weeks and you will be strong and healthy. Syrup of hypophosphites comp., 5 ozs.; tincture cadomene comp., 1 oz. (not cadomom), and take a teaspoonful before each meal. Shake well before taking.

Miss Beatrice asks: "Will you please prescribe for one who is too fleshy so that about 30 pounds can be taken off?"

Answer: Obtain any of the well-stocked druggist a tube of 5-grain arbolene tablets and take regularly as per directions accompanying same. Many of my patients have reduced at the rate of a pound a day without any ill results.

"Unhappy May" writes: "I suffer constantly with headaches, indigestion and kidney trouble. My skin is pimply and oily."

Answer: Hypo-Nuclane tablets have been prescribed with great success as indicated by gratifying letters from hundreds of girls who suffer as you do. These tablets can be purchased in sealed packages from any well-stocked drug store and full directions are given inside. These should be taken regularly for about two months, and you will be surprised to note the color in your cheeks and lips and your weight will increase from 15 to 30 pounds.

SICK MAN HAD TO STEAL OR STARVE

SAGINAW, Mich., Jan. 28.—"I either had to steal or starve," John Petoskey told Chief Kain, when charged with the theft of $50 worth of wires which he said he took from the poles of the Saginaw-Bay City Railway company.

The man is only 21 and in the advanced stages of tuberculosis. His wife is younger.

Petoskey says he is too sick to work and he could not bear to see his wife suffer.

A man is willing to whisper his praise of anybody, but he wants to yell his blame.

The one way a man can make his money last is to make it first.

PRIEST GIVES UP VOWS TO MARRY

SEATTLE, Wash., Jan. 28.—A conflict with his vows of eternal celibacy raged for two years within the breast of the Rev. Father D. J. Gallagher, and love triumphed.

Miss Florence Laver, 24 years old, who became his bride at Christ church cathedral in St. Louis recently, is now here, where the former priest will go into business.

Father Gallagher was assistant rector of the Cathedral of the Assumption.

"Florence and I will remain Catholics," the priest told his mother-in-law. "We will go to church and live up to the teachings as nearly as we can."

A WOMAN'S PROBLEM

In the looking-glass a woman often sees wrinkles, hollow circles under eyes, "crow's feet," all because she did not turn to the right remedy when worn down with those troubles which are distinctly feminine. Backache, headache, pains, lassitude, nervousness and drains upon vitality—bring out suffering to womanhood and the face shows it. The nervous system and the entire womanly make-up feels the tonic effect of

WIFE AND CHILD OF OUTLAW KILLED

WINNIPEG, Man., Jan. 28.—In a desperate battle between a sheriff's posse and a Galician outlaw, mounted police Constable Rooke was shot and killed. The posse then rushed the outlaw's shack, pouring a volley of lead into the cabin as they proceeded. Entering the shack they found the infant child of the outlaw dead in its mother's arms and the mother bleeding to death, several bullets having penetrated the bodies of both. The Galician outlaw escaped into the bush and is still at large, though hotly pursued by the posse.

NOSTRILS AND HEAD STOPPED UP FROM COLDS? TRY MY CATARRH BALM

Instantly Clears Air Passages; You Breathe Freely; Dull Headache Goes; Nasty Catarrhal Discharge Stops.

Try "Ely's Cream Balm." Get a small bottle anyway, just to try it—Apply a little in the nostrils and instantly your clogged nose and stopped-up air passages of the head will open; you will breathe freely; dullness and headache disappear. By morning the catarrh, cold-in-head or catarrhal sore throat will be gone.

End such misery now! Get the small bottle of "Ely's Cream Balm" at any drug store. This sweet, fragrant balm dissolves by the heat of the nostrils; penetrates and heals the inflamed, swollen membrane which lines the nose, head and throat clears the air passages; stops nasty discharges and a feeling of cleansing, soothing relief comes immediately.

Don't lay awake tonight struggling for breath, with head stuffed; nostrils closed, hawking and blowing. Catarrh or a cold, with it's running nose, foul mucous dropping into the throat, and raw dryness is distressing but truly needless.

Put your faith—just once—in "Ely's Cream Balm" and your cold or catarrh will surely disappear.

O. T. Erhart, agent.

Bread Tranchoirs.

There is no city in the world where so much bread is consumed as in Paris. It is estimated that every inhabitant eats one pound a day on the average. Even in past centuries the French, especially Parisians, had a horror of stale bread. And as in those days people manufactured their own bread they had a curious way of making it palatable. Strange as it may seem, the bread prepared, huge round or square slabs, was used as a dish, on which the meat was carved and bore the name of "tranchoirs," or "tailloirs." The juice of the meat having penetrated into the bread imparted a pleasant taste and prevented it from becoming dry—Baker's Weekly.

NEW YORK, Jan. 28.—The stock market opened moderately active with fractional gains in all leading issues.

11 a. m.—The market gained steadily in activity and strength during the early part of the first hour. International Harvester advanced several points on the news of the incorporation of a new company in New Jersey. All leading stocks showed fractional gains, the high for the hour in U. S. Steel, being 65. Reading reached 164 1/4. American Can rose from 33 1/2 to 36 1/4.

Toward the end of the first hour the advance was checked somewhat. Traders regarded this influence as wholesome, however, as the rise had been too rapid.

Noon—Trading was quiet during the second hour, but the market had a strong undertone.

The stock market closed strong.

CHANGE THREATENS
TO SILENCE MURPHYPeerless Leader Sends a Message to Cub Owner Demanding Him to Shut UpCHICAGO, Jan. 28.—The telegram of censure from Frank Chance to Charles W. Murphy, owner of the Cubs, was said today to be now in Murphy's possession. Although written by Chance last Friday it did not get here until late yesterday. The reason, as explained in a telegram from Chance to a Chicago newspaper, is that it was given to one of his Glendora relatives to be sent and was forgotten until yesterday.The telegram said to be as follows:
"I consider it beneath my dignity to answer any of your insinuations regarding myself. However, if I hear of any more interviews with you, derogatory to me, I will shut you up as quickly as I did last fall. This goes."Murphy refused today to say anything about the message, or even to admit that he had it.
Chance's ire was aroused by a series of articles written by Murphy for an afternoon paper, in which Murphy has taken several raps at Chance.EVANS-KIRCHEIS

PUGILIST KILLED
BY SAILOR SMITHNEW YORK, Jan. 28.—Opponents of the boxing game in New York are making capital today out of the fact that "Chick" Rose, a welterweight, was killed in a bout here last night and it seems that the agitation may bring about more debates at Albany.The fight took place at the Washington Athletic club, Williamsburgh.
Rose's opponent was Sailor Smith, who went after his man at the top of the gong, forcing the mill at every stage. Smith fought Rose all over the ring landing at will and finally, in the eighth round, he planted a solid right on the other man's jaw that sent him to the canvas. Rose was counted out and taken unconscious to a hospital where he died.
Smith and Edward Oldes, the referee, were placed under arrest.It takes a smart man to land on his feet when he falls in a hole.THORPE CONFESSES

U. S. RETAINS OLYMPIC HONORS

Six Points Made by Thorpe in Olympic Games Are Forfeited but U. S.
Still LeadsNEW YORK, Jan. 28.—Nothing but expressions of sympathy were heard in every quarter over the plight of "Jim" Thorpe, the big Indian athlete, who was yesterday "condemned out of his own mouth" of the sin of professionalism because he played baseball—a true American spirit—with a now defunct league and has thus been read out of amateur athletics and all of the trophies that he won by his gallant work in Sweden ordered, returned to the Olympic committee. But there was much bitter condemnation for the management of the A. A. U. for the manner in which it has handled the Thorpe case as contrasted with hundreds of cases of real professionalism right here in the metropolitan district.The committee did right, it was conceded, in repudiating Thorpe and in ordering the return of all his prizes. But there was an undercurrent of resentment that the committee had not taken cognizance of the fact that the big Indian had played professional baseball before his Olympic entry was put through. It was admitted that the real method of investigation, the farce which will certainly be seized upon by the nations on the other side of the "pond" to renew their attacks upon American athletic methods, would have been prevented.The present registration methods of the A. A. U. are antiquated. There are any number of professionals masquerading as amateurs and it was pointed out that Thorpe, who played the game for the love of it, had been disqualified although he received very little money, while Brickley, the Harvard football star; Flynn of Yale, and a score of others during the recent football season earned more for one article from their pens—and in most instances they did not actually write a sentence—than Thorpe did for a whole season of ball playing in "the bushes." But they retain their amateur standing.There was a general feeling among the real lovers of athletics today that something should be done to give Jim Thorpe the recognition that his mighty deeds deserved despite the fact that all of the records he established are now automatically wiped out by the action of the A. A. U.
Thorpe's clean breast of the matter, saving time and trouble, was accepted as a real proof of sportsmanship, and although the trophies of royalty will go to others, sporting experts unanimously conceded today that Thorpe will be more respected than ever for not having tried to lie out of it, as other amateurs have done in the past and have gotten away with it, because the A. A. U. committees have not been too persistent in their investigations.The trophies won by Thorpe are already enroute to Jim Sullivan and will be immediately sent back to Sweden to be given to the contestants who finished second to the incomparable Indian.U. S. in Lead Notwithstanding the disqualification of Thorpe, the United States still remains in the lead in the readjusted program of the results of the last Olympic games. Sweden gets second place in the list. In the Decathlon Swedish athletes finished second, third and fourth to the American and the five points are added to their total, making them 32 and putting them ahead of Finland.The total of the United States is reduced from 85 to 79 through the loss of the Thorpe points. J. J. Donahue of the United States takes second instead of third in the Penath-lon, first honors in which now go to F. B. Blee of Norway; F. L. Luke-man of Canada moves up from fourth to third place. This gives NorwayThe Most Popular Picture House in the City

Confession

Thorpe's letter of confession to the committee follows:"I played baseball at Rockmount and at Fayetteville, N. C., in the summer of 1909 and 1910 under my own name. On the same teams I played with were several college men from the north who were earning money by ball playing during their vacations and who were regarded as amateurs at home. I did not play for the money there was in it, because my property brings me in enough money to live on, but because I liked to play ball. I was not very wise to the ways of the world and did not realize that this was wrong, and it would make me a professional in track sports, although I learned from the other players that it would be better for me not to let any one know that I was playing and for that reason I never told any one at the school about it until today. In the fall of 1911 I applied for re-admission to this school and came back to continue my studies and take part in the school sports and of course I wanted to get on the Olympic team and take the trip to Stockholm. I had Mr. Warner send in my application for registering in the A. A. U.
after I had answered the questions and signed it, and I received my card allowing me to compete in the winter meets and other track sports. I never realized until now what a big mistake I made by keeping it a secret about my ball playing and I am sorry I did so. I hope I will be partly excused by the fact that I was simply an Indian schoolboy and did not know all about such things. In fact I did not know that I was doing what I know several other college men had done except that they did not use their own names. I have always liked sport and only played or run races for the fun of the thing and never to earn money. I have received offers amounting to thousands of dollars since my victories last summer but I have turned them all down because I did not care to make money from my athletic skill. I amvery sorry, Mr. Sullivan, to have it all spoiled in this way and I hope the Amateur Athletic union and the people will not be too hard in judging me."

England Approves

LONDON, Jan. 28.—British athletes today generally expressed approval of the expose of Jim Thorpe, the Indian athlete, as a professional, and also commends the American for his frank confession."Because of Thorpe's endorsement by the American Olympic committee and the Amateur Athletic association, Thorpe's status as an amateur was accepted without question by the international council," said Captain S. W. Jones, secretary of the British Olympic committee.
